Barbara J. Wilson

President, The University of Iowa

Dr. Barbara J. Wilson is the 22nd president of the University of Iowa. Her leadership priorities are focused on people. In her first four years, the university embarked on a new five-year strategic plan, launched transformative faculty recruitment and retention programs, initiated a new program to support first-generation undergraduate students, significantly expanded mental health and well-being programs and services for students and the entire university community, and created a 10-year facilities master plan that is improving academic spaces and modernizing the delivery of education and patient care. President Wilson and her development team have raised more than $2 billion in gifts and commitments to support student, faculty, and health care initiatives. This historic philanthropy is part of the university's Together Hawkeyes campaign, a campuswide effort publicly announced in 2023 that has reached more than 300,000 alumni and friends and seeks to raise $3 billion in private support.

President Wilson earned her bachelor's degree in journalism and master's and PhD degrees in communication arts from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. She came to Iowa having served as the executive vice president/vice president for academic affairs of the University of Illinois System. Prior to that, she served in several administrative positions, including interim chancellor, at the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign, where she was a member of the communication faculty for 21 years. She was also a professor of communication at the University of California, Santa Barbara, and the University of Louisville. President Wilson's research focuses on the social and psychological effects of the media, particularly on youth.

President Wilson's spouse, John Lammers, is a retired professor of communication. They have three grown daughters, Emily, Isabel, and Grace.

Beth Goetz

Henry B. and Patricia B. Tippie
Director of Athletics Chair

Beth Goetz was announced as Henry B. and Patricia B. Tippie Director of Athletics Chair at the University of Iowa on Jan. 18, 2024, after serving five months as UI's interim director. Goetz joined the Iowa athletics staff as Deputy Director of Athletics and Chief Operating Officer (COO) on Sept. 7, 2022.

Under her leadership, several teams and student-athletes have enjoyed athletic and academic success the last two seasons.

Seven teams -- as well as several men's and women's track and field individuals -- advanced to postseason competition, each of the last two seasons (2024, 2025).

In 2025, women's wrestling captured its second consecutive national championship. Other team highlights from this past year include men's wrestling placing fourth nationally, women's soccer advancing to its first NCAA Sweet 16, football's invitation to the Music City Bowl and women's basketball's continued success.

Forty-two student-athletes earned All-America distinction, while five Hawkeyes were crowned Big Ten champions in 2024-25. Iowa student-athletes also excelled in the classroom with 285 earning Academic All-Big Ten accolades, while 368 were recognized on the Dean's or President's List in 2024-25.

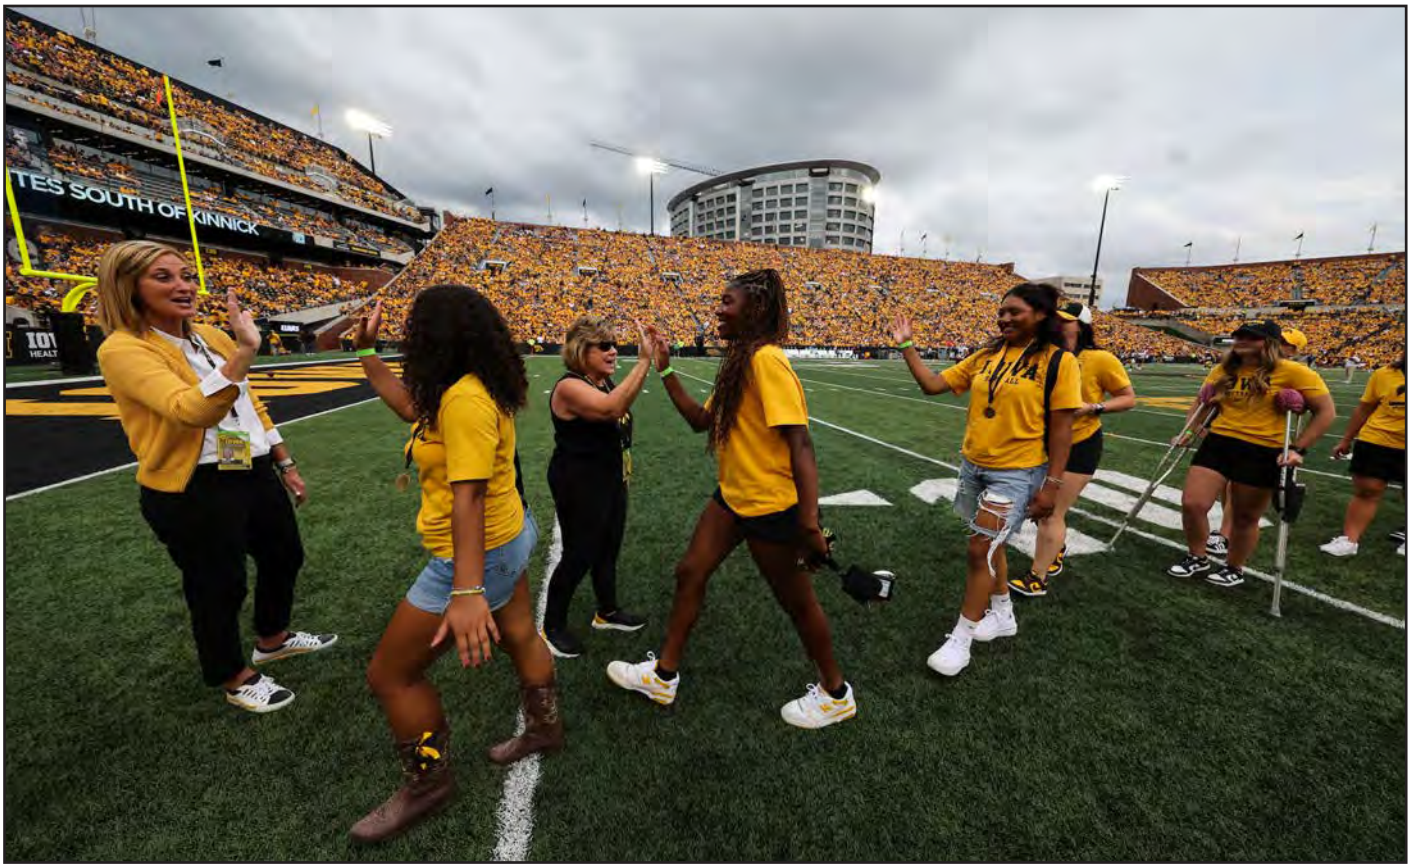
In 2024, women's wrestling won its first national championship and women's basketball finished as national runners-up for a second consecutive season. Iowa's women's soccer and basketball teams won their respective Big Ten Tournament, football captured the Big Ten West Division, while men's wrestling place fifth nationally and men's basketball advanced to the NIT Round of 16.

The 2023-24 women's basketball season got off to a historic start with the memorable "Crossover at Kinnick" event that saw a record 55,646 fans attend and help raise approximately $250,000 for the University of Iowa Stead Family Children's Hospital. Consensus National Player of the Year Caitlin Clark led the Hawkeyes to 34 wins -- equaling the most wins in conference history -- and sellout crowds at every home game and nearly every road contest.

Off the field, a combined 282 student-athletes earned Big Ten Academic All-Big Ten accolades, 28 were Academic All-Americans, Hawkeye student-athletes amassed more than 3,800 total hours of community service in 2023-24.

Goetz joined the Iowa athletics staff from Ball State University, where she had served as Director of Athletics since May 2018. At Ball State, she directly supervised 19 Division I Intercollegiate sports teams, all head coaches, and the senior athletics department professional staff. Goetz previously served as Minnesota's Deputy Athletics Director from 2013-15 and interim Athletics Director during the 2015-16 season.

Ball State won 10 Mid-American Conference championships during the time Goetz served as athletics director, including seven during the 2021-22 athletics campaign, the most since 1999-2000.



Goetz also guided Ball State to strong marks in the Reese and Jacoby Trophy standings, which honors the top men's and women's athletics programs in the MAC, respectively. The Cardinals placed third in the Reese Trophy standings in 2021-22, their best finish since taking second in 2013. In addition, Ball State reached heights never achieved in the classroom, including back-to-back years with a 90 percent Graduation Success Rate (GSR) and the highest department GPAs on record.

Among the first projects Goetz tackled at Ball State was the creation of a five-year strategic plan titled, Onward, which was created prior to 2019. During her tenure Goetz also hired eight head coaches, launched the NIL initiative Ball You and as a member of the President's Cabinet served on several key campus committees. Goetz' fundraising acumen was on full display while at Ball State, producing increases in sport specific giving and the completion of numerous capital projects including the university's $15 million Scheumann Family Indoor Practice Facility. Revenue generation strategies were highlighted by an increase in ticket sales across all sports and a revamped concessions agreement.

In addition to her previous role as an administrator, Goetz has been selected for national leadership duties. Goetz was named to the NCAA Competition Oversight Committee in 2018 and served as vice chair of the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Committee in 2021. She was named by Women Leaders in College Sports as the 2022 NCAA Division I FBS Nike Executive of the Year and was recognized by the Indianapolis Business Journal (IBJ) as one of the publications 2021 Women of Influence.

Prior to arriving at Ball State, Goetz was the chief operating officer/senior woman administrator at the University of Connecticut from 2016-18. She served as Minnesota's Deputy Athletics Director from 2013-15 and the interim athletics director during the 2015-16 year. She was the associate athletics director at Butler University from 2008-13 following a 13-year stint at the University of Missouri-St. Louis, where she was an assistant women's soccer coach (1996), head women's soccer coach (1997-2008) and assistant athletics director/senior woman administrator (2001-08). Goetz was inducted into the UMSL Sports Hall of Fame in 2014.

During her college career Goetz was an accomplished Division I student-athlete, playing soccer at Clemson University. She earned All-America recognition at Brevard College (N.C.), where she was inducted into the college's Hall of Fame in 2017. Goetz earned an associate of arts degree from Brevard in 1994 and a Bachelor of Arts degree from Clemson in 1996. She earned her master's degree from the University of Missouri-St. Louis in 2000.

Kirk Ferentz

Moon Family Head Football Coach
27th Year at Iowa

Moon Family Head Football Coach Kirk Ferentz is in his 27th year as the head football coach at the University of Iowa. The position of UI head football coach was endowed in 2021 by Will and Renee Moon. The Bettendorf, Iowa, couple are UI alumni and longtime Hawkeye supporters.

Iowa's win at in-state rival Iowa State on Sept. 9, 2023, was his 200th as a college head coach. With Iowa's win over Michigan State on Sept. 30, 2023, Ferentz surpassed Amos Alonzo Stagg for third place in Big Ten victories (116), and his career mark in Big Ten games stands at 128-88.

Ferentz and the Hawkeyes closed the 2022 season with a 21-0 win over Kentucky in the Music City Bowl as Ferentz claimed the 10th bowl victory of his career; that mark ties former Penn State coach Joe Paterno for most bowl wins in league history. Nationally, Ferentz is one of 20 coaches with 10 bowl victories.

Overall, Ferentz has a 204-124 record with the Hawkeyes, ranking second all-time in wins among Big Ten coaches. As a head coach Ferentz holds a 216-145 record in 29 seasons. Ferentz's teams traditionally improve as the season progresses; Iowa is 21-3 in November games since 2019.

In addition to serving as Iowa's head coach for 26 seasons, Ferentz has been a member of the Iowa coaching staff for 35 seasons. His most recent contract extension extended his agreement with Iowa through the 2029 season.

Under Ferentz's leadership the Iowa football program has earned 22 bowl game invitations since 2001 (2020 Music City Bowl was canceled). That success has been achieved with strong commitments to the program, the University of Iowa, and the ideals that represent Hawkeye football – hard work, determination, player development and character, on and off the field.

Iowa has recorded eight wins or more the last ten seasons (Iowa was 6-2 in the 2020 COVID-19 season). Only four other programs (Alabama, Clemson, Georgia, Ohio State) have won eight games every year over that time frame.

The Hawkeyes won 18 games the last two seasons, including 10 and capturing the Big Ten West Division in 2023. The Hawkeyes earned their eighth 10-win season and 13th January bowl game in the Ferentz era in 2023. Iowa has been ranked in the final AP Top 25 five of the last seven seasons, including No. 24, in 2023.

The Hawkeyes won 10 games for the seventh time under Ferentz and earned an invitation to the Citrus Bowl, Iowa's 12th January bowl game and 19th postseason invitation overall in the Ferentz era.

The Hawkeyes played the toughest schedule in the West Division in 2022, as two of their five losses came to playoff teams Michigan and Ohio State. Two additional losses were by three-point margins as Iowa improved throughout the season, winning five of its final six games.

In 2021, Ferentz led Iowa to its second Big Ten West Division title (2015), posting a 7-2 conference record and 10-4 overall mark. Iowa was ranked 23rd in the final 2021 rankings, the fourth straight season the Hawkeyes have ended the year in the Top 25.

With Iowa's 33-7 win over Northern Illinois in the opening game of the 2018 season, Ferentz recorded win No. 144 as Iowa's head coach, surpassing the late Hayden Fry as the winningest football coach in program history. Fry was Iowa's head coach for 20 seasons (1979-98).

Ferentz is the longest tenured head football coach in the nation. Ferentz and Fry are the only head coaches to lead a Division I football program for 20 years, consecutively. With a 63-0 win at Illinois in 2018, Ferentz became just the fifth coach in Big Ten Conference history to win 150 games as a Big Ten head coach. Ferentz earned his 100th career Big Ten win at Penn State (Nov. 21, 2020).

The Hawkeyes have earned 31 conference victories between 2020-24, matching its highest five-year conference win total in program history (1981-85 and 2019-23). Iowa has posted five January bowl wins as Iowa's head coach. The Hawkeyes have twice won three straight bowl games (2008-10 and 2017-19) under Ferentz. Iowa has won at least six conference games five of the last six seasons.

Iowa opened the 2021 season with six straight wins, including three victories over ranked opponents while being ranked as high as second in the nation. Following consecutive losses, the Hawkeyes rallied to win their final four regular season games to earn the Big Ten's West Division title. The Iowa defense set a school record with 25 interceptions.

The Hawkeyes won 47 games from 2015-19, the best five-year win total in school history. Just eight programs in the nation won more games during that time frame. Ferentz guided the Hawkeyes to eight wins or more in five consecutive seasons (2015-19) and 16 seasons overall since 2002.

On the field, Ferentz's approach can be described as smart, tough, and physical. Off the field, academics and character development are a focus. In 2021, the University of Iowa outperformed its peers nationally in the classroom for the 10th consecutive year, according to data released by the NCAA.

Following back-to-back narrow losses to open the 2020 season, Iowa won six straight games, all in Big Ten play, to complete the regular season. The Hawkeyes scored at least 26 points in each of the six wins, while holding three opponents to just seven points. The winning streak included road wins at Minnesota, Penn State and Illinois, and trophy game victories over Minnesota, Nebraska and Wisconsin. The Hawkeyes were ranked 15th in the nation in the final CFP ranking and Coaches Poll, 16th by the AP Iowa's Music City Bowl date with Missouri in December was canceled due to the pandemic.

Iowa concluded 2019 with three straight wins over border rivals Minnesota, Illinois and Nebraska, followed by the 49-24 Holiday Bowl win over No. 22 USC. Following a 24-22 loss at Wisconsin to open November, the Hawkeyes handed No. 7 Minnesota its first loss of the season to maintain possession of Floyd of Rosedale. Iowa's three losses came by a combined 14 points to three teams who were ranked in the top 20 at the time. Iowa also maintained possession of the Iowa Corn Cy-Hawk Trophy with a win at Iowa State in September.

Iowa won six of its first seven games in 2018 and closed the season with wins in the final three games, including the 27-22 Outback Bowl win over No. 18 Mississippi State. The four losses came by a total of 23 points, and all were decided in the final minutes of play. Iowa's defense ranked second nationally in interceptions after leading the nation in 2017.

Iowa's 8-5 record in 2017 included wins in three of four trophy games, with victories over Iowa State, Minnesota, and Nebraska, plus the Pinstripe Bowl win to conclude the season. Iowa also began November with a 55-24 win over third-ranked Ohio State. Nine of Iowa's 12 regular season opponents were bowl eligible (posting an 8-1 record) as the Hawkeyes faced one of the strongest schedules in the nation.

Iowa closed the 2016 regular season with three straight wins, including two over ranked opponents. Iowa posted a 6-3 record in Big Ten play to tie for second place in the West Division and finished the season at 8-5 overall.

Highlights of the year included Iowa defeating second-ranked Michigan and 15th-ranked Nebraska in the final month of the season, as well as earning a January bowl invitation for the 10th time during the Ferentz era.

The Iowa football program enjoyed a historic season in 2015, posting a final 12-2 record. Ferentz led the 2015 Hawkeyes to a perfect regular season, setting a school record with 12 wins. The Hawkeyes won the Big Ten West Division (8-0) before falling to Michigan State, 16-13, in a close championship game that was decided in the final minute of play. The Hawkeyes earned their sixth invitation to the Rose Bowl, which was Iowa's first appearance in Pasadena in 25 years.

Ferentz was recognized with both the Hayes-Schembechler and Dave McClain Big Ten Conference Coach of the Year awards in 2015. He was named Eddie Robinson (FWAA) and Woody Hayes National Coach of the Year (Columbus Touchdown Club), and received the Dodd Trophy, presented by the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Foundation. He was also named the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Region 3 Coach of the Year.

Coaching History

Ferentz's coaching career began as a student assistant (1977) at his alma mater, the University of Connecticut. The next two years (1978-79) were spent at Worcester Academy, where he also taught English literature. He then served as a graduate assistant offensive line coach at the University of Pittsburgh during the 1980 season. That Pittsburgh team (coached by Jackie Sherrill) finished with an 11-1 record and a number two national ranking.

Ferentz joined Hayden Fry's Iowa staff as the offensive line coach in 1981, which became Iowa's first winning seasons in 19 years. The season was highlighted by the Hawkeyes winning a conference title and earning a Rose Bowl berth – both of which had not occurred in 20 years.

He continued as Iowa's offensive line coach through the 1989 season and had great success coaching offensive lines that, to date, have anchored four of Iowa's highest scoring offenses. In addition, eight of Iowa's top 10 offensive teams, in terms of yards gained per game, have operated with Ferentz as the head coach or offensive line coach. And Iowa's top nine passing teams of all time have occurred with Ferentz as the head coach, or offensive line coach.

Ferentz was named head coach of the University of Maine Black Bears in 1990 and held that position for three years before being hired by Bill Belichick and the Cleveland Browns to coach the offensive line. He remained with the organization after it moved to Baltimore and became the Baltimore Ravens, serving as assistant head coach and offensive line coach. In all, he worked six years with the Cleveland Browns/Baltimore Ravens of the National Football League.

He rejoined the Hawkeyes as head coach in 1999 and is Iowa's longest tenured head football coach.

Personal History

Off the field, family is the top priority for Ferentz. Ferentz and his wife, Mary, have been married for 45 years. They have five children: Brian, Kelly, Joanne, James, and Steven. They also have five granddaughters (Presley, Blakely, Connolly, Jolie, and Bella), and seven grandsons (John, Forest, Nixon, Lincoln, Beckett, Marshall, and Lucas). All five of their children graduated from City High School in Iowa City and earned degrees from the University of Iowa; and each of the boys had the incredible experience of playing football at the University of Iowa with their father as head coach.

Kirk and Mary are very enthusiastic supporters of the University of Iowa Stead Family Children's Hospital. They serve as advocates for the Children's Hospital, hosting and speaking at events across the state to raise awareness and support for the hospital. Kirk and Mary established the "Ferentz Family Pediatric Research and Education Endowment Fund" in 2007. In honor of their granddaughter, Mary and Kirk donated more than $1 million in 2017 to establish the Savvy Elizabeth Ferentz Neonatology Research Fund. In addition, the Iowa Ladies' Football Academy has donated $3 million to the UI Stead Family Children's Hospital, which opened across the street from Kinnick Stadium in December 2016.

Ferentz has also been involved in supporting several community and university-related initiatives, including serving as the honorary chair of the University of Iowa's United Way campaign. Kirk and Mary have also contributed generously to the University of Iowa, including donations to the University's College of Liberal Arts. Another significant gift was a $500,000 commitment to support the Iowa Football Legacy Campaign, which included two key projects benefitting the Hawkeye football program; the indoor practice facility; and the Stew and LeNore Hansen Football Performance Center.

Ferentz was born Aug. 1, 1955, in Royal Oak, Michigan. He attended Upper St. Clair High School in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and graduated from the University of Connecticut in 1978 with a bachelor's degree in English Education. He was a football captain and an academic All-Yankee Conference linebacker at Connecticut.

Ferentz received the Distinguished Alumnus Award from the Neag School of Education at the University of Connecticut in May 2009. He was inducted into the Upper St. Clair High School Hall of Fame in September, 2002, and the Western Chapter of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame in May 2003.

Seth Wallace

Assistant Head Coach
Assistant Defensive Coordinator
Linebackers Coach
15th Year at Iowa

Seth Wallace was elevated to assistant head football coach at the University of Iowa in January 2024. He has coached Hawkeye linebackers since 2016 and served as Iowa's assistant defensive coordinator the past eight seasons.

Wallace was Iowa's recruiting coordinator in 2014 and 2015, while also coaching cornerbacks and nickelbacks in 2015. He worked with the defensive line in 2014. Wallace previously served as a graduate assistant coach on the Iowa staff for three seasons (2006-08).

Iowa's defense consistently ranks among the best in the country, ranking in the top 20 in scoring defense each of the last 10 seasons. The Hawkeyes have allowed fewer than 20 points per game the last nine seasons, the longest active streak in the country.

Iowa has held 10 teams without a touchdown since the start of the 2022 season. The unit allowed one touchdown or less in 10 games in 2023 and in 22 of the last 40 contests.

Under Wallace's leadership, Iowa's linebacking corps has consistently been one of the nation's best. Over the past nine years, Wallace has coached five linebackers who have garnered All-America recognition. An Iowa linebacker has led the Big Ten in total tackles three of the last four seasons. Wallace has mentored 11 linebackers to all-conference status and eight players have gone on to play in the National Football League.

The Hawkeyes won 18 games the last two seasons, including 10 and capturing the Big Ten West Division in 2023. Iowa earned berths to the Citrus and Music City bowls after the 2023 and 2024 seasons, respectively, and finished 2023 ranked No. 24 nationally. The Hawkeyes have been ranked in the final AP Top 25 five of the last seven seasons.

Linebacker Jay Higgins tied the school record for most tackles in a season, was a Butkus Award semifinalist, and was honored as a first-team All-American in 2023. He followed up with a unanimous consensus All-America season in 2024, being the only player in the nation with 100+ tackles and four interceptions. Higgins was also tabbed the Butkus-Fitzgerald Big Ten Linebacker of the Year and was a semifinalist for the Lombardi, Lott IMPACT and Butkus awards. Linebacker Nick Jackson was honorable mention all-conference in 2024 and finished his career with the second most tackles in FBS history.

Iowa's defense led the way in 2022, including posting just the second shutout in Iowa's 35 bowl games. The defense led the nation in with seven defensive touchdowns, including two interception return scores in the bowl win. The Hawkeyes won eight games, including five of the last six. Iowa's defense was in the top 12 in the nation in scoring defense (second), total defense (second), pass efficiency defense (fourth), passing yards per game (sixth), first down defense (10th), third down defense (11th) and rushing defense (12th).

Linebacker Jack Campbell earned unanimous consensus All-America honors, while earning the Butkus Award and the William V. Campbell Trophy. He is the first Hawkeye player to win each of the awards. He was the Nagurski-Woodson Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year and Butkus-Fitzgerald Big Ten Linebacker of the Year. Linebacker Seth Benson also earned second-team All-Big Ten accolades.

Campbell was selected in the first round of the 2023 NFL Draft, taken by the Detroit Lions as the 18th player selected. He has been a mainstay on Detroit's defense the last couple years. Benson signed a free agent contract with Denver immediately following the draft.

Iowa's streak of 12 straight bowl invitations is the longest in school history and its streak of 12 straight winning seasons ranks fifth best among power conferences. The Hawkeyes have earned 31 conference victories between 2020-24, matching its highest five-year conference win total in program history (1981-85 and 2019-23).

The Hawkeyes won 10 games in 2021, winning the Big Ten West Division title and advancing to the conference championship game. Iowa concluded the season with an appearance in the Citrus Bowl and was ranked 23rd in the final national ranking.

Iowa's defense set a school record and led the nation with 25 interceptions in 2021. The defense ranked among national leaders in takeaways (30, third), defensive touchdowns scored (four, seventh), pass efficiency defense (110.5, sixth), turnover margin (0.8, 11th), rushing defense (114.4, 13th), scoring defense (19.2, 13th) and total defense (328.8, 18th).

Campbell led the Hawkeye defense and ranked first in the nation with 143 tackles. Campbell earned first-team All-Big Ten and earned second-team All-America honors from two media outlets. He scored two of Iowa's four defensive touchdowns in 2021, including a fumble return and an interception return. Benson was second on the team with 105 tackles while earning third-team all-conference honors.

Following back-to-back narrow losses to open the 2020 season, Iowa won its final six games, all in Big Ten play. The Hawkeyes allowed just seven points in three of the six wins. The winning streak included road wins at Minnesota, Penn State and Illinois, and trophy game victories over Minnesota, Nebraska, and Wisconsin. The Hawkeyes were ranked 15th in the nation in the final CFP ranking and Coaches Poll, and 16th by the AP. The Hawkeyes were selected to compete in the 2020 Music City Bowl, but that event was canceled.

Iowa's defense in 2020 led the nation in yards per play (4.3). The Hawkeyes ranked among the national leaders in several additional categories, including scoring (16.0, 7th), pass efficiency defense (110.1, 9th), rushing defense (107.6, 11th), total defense (313.8, 12th), red zone defense (.727, 12th) and interceptions (11, 19th).

Iowa won 47 games from 2015-19, the highest total in school history over any five-year period, and a total that ranked ninth nationally. Iowa won its final four games in 2019 and ranked 15th in the final Associated Press and Coaches polls.

Senior linebacker Nick Niemann led the Hawkeyes in tackles and ranked fourth in the Big Ten in tackles per game (9.6) in 2020. Niemann earned third-team all-conference honors while Benson earned honorable mention recognition. Niemann was selected by the Los Angeles Chargers in the sixth round of the 2021 NFL Draft, while Barrington Wade signed a free agent contract (Baltimore) immediately following the draft.

The Hawkeyes concluded 2019 with a 10-3 record following a 49-24 rout over No. 22 USC in the Holiday Bowl. The three losses were all to ranked opponents by a combined 14 points. Iowa was 4-1 in trophy games for the third straight season.

The 2019 Hawkeye defense ranked among the top 17 in the nation in scoring defense (5th, 14.0), first downs allowed (9th, 16.6), total defense (12th, 308.2), rushing defense (14th, 112.5), turnover margin (14th, 0.7) and pass efficiency defense (17th, 116.0). Iowa tied for second in the nation in interceptions (20) in 2018 after leading the nation in 2017 with 21.

Linebacker Kristian Welch led the Iowa defense in 2019, recording 87 tackled to lead the team despite missing three full games. Welch earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors. He signed a free agent contract with Baltimore immediately following the 2020 NFL Draft and was with the Ravens throughout the season.

Iowa completed 2018 with nine wins and a final AP ranking of No. 25. The Hawkeyes earned a 27-22 Outback Bowl win over No. 18 Mississippi State to close the season with three straight wins. The four losses came by a total of 23 points and all were decided in the final minutes of play. Iowa tied for second in the Big Ten West Division.

Iowa's linebackers were an inexperienced crew in 2018 but contributed greatly to Iowa's high national ranking in several team categories. Amani Hooker, splitting time between safety and outside linebacker, earned All-America recognition while being named the Tatum-Woodson Big Ten Defensive Back of the Year. Hooker declared for the NFL following his junior season and was selected in the fourth round of the 2019 NFL Draft by Tennessee.

The Hawkeye defense led the nation with 21 interceptions in 2017, led by defensive back Josh Jackson, who led the nation individually with eight interceptions to match Iowa's single-season record. Jackson and linebacker Josey Jewell each earned unanimous consensus All-America honors. The Hawkeyes ranked 17th in the nation in scoring defense (19.9), allowing less than 20 points per game for the third consecutive season. Iowa matched a school record with four interception return touchdowns.

Jewell led the Big Ten in tackles for the second time in three seasons (he was second as a junior) and ranked fourth in the nation in tackles per game (11.3). He earned unanimous consensus All-America honors and was named the Big Ten Conference linebacker and defensive Player of the Year. Jewell earned the Lott IMPACT Trophy and the Jack Lambert Trophy and was a finalist for the Nagurski Trophy.

Jewell became the third Hawkeye selected in the 2018 NFL Draft when he was selected in the fourth round by the Denver Broncos. Ben Niemann, also a three-year starter for the Hawkeyes, was a key defensive contributor for the Kansas City Chiefs for four seasons before playing with Arizona (2022), Denver (2023) and Detroit (2024).

Jewell led the Iowa defense in 2016, ranking second in the conference in tackles while earning second-team All-Big Ten honors for the second consecutive season. The Hawkeyes ranked 13th in the nation in scoring defense and red zone defense, 19th in pass efficiency defense and 23rd in total defense.

The Hawkeyes posted a perfect 12-0 regular season record in 2015, winning the Big Ten West Division. Iowa participated in the 2016 Rose Bowl Game and the 2015 Big Ten Championship and ended the season in the top 10 in the final national rankings.

Iowa's experienced offensive line was one of the best in the country in 2024. The unit was a semifinalist for the Joe Moore Award, which honors offensive line units that display a high level of toughness, effort, teamwork, consistency, technique and finishing. All five starting linemen garnered All-Big Ten accolades in 2024: center Logan Jones (first team), tackles Gennings Dunker (second team) and Mason Richman (honorable mention), and guards Connor Colby (first team) and Beau Stephens (honorable mention). Jones, Dunker, Richman and Colby also earned all-conference laurels for their play in 2023.

Two graduating senior linemen -- Richman and Colby -- were drafted by Seattle and San Francisco, respectively, in the 2025 NFL Draft.

The line battled inexperience in 2022 as Iowa started the season with just one junior and one senior among the players in the rotation. Richman started all 13 games and earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors. Iowa's usual starting line-up included one senior, three sophomores and one redshirt freshman.

In his first season on the Hawkeye staff, Barnett coached a line led by unanimous consensus All-America center Tyler Linderbaum. Linderbaum was the Rimington-Pace Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year and was recognized as the best center in the nation as the recipient of the Rimington Trophy. The Hawkeyes won 18 games the last two seasons, including 10 and capturing the Big Ten West Division in 2023. Iowa earned berths to the Citrus and Music City bowls after the 2023 and 2024 seasons, respectively, and finished 2023 ranked No. 24 nationally. Three of Iowa's top six receiving targets in 2024 were tight ends with Luke Lachey (28-231), Addison Ostrenga (15-114) and Zach Ortwerth (11-133) catching a combined 54 passes.

The NFL recognized Lachey's talent and he was selected in the seventh round of the 2025 NFL Draft by the Houston Texans.

In his first season on the Iowa staff, Iowa won eight contests in 2022, concluding the season with a 21-0 win over Kentucky in the Music City Bowl and victories in five of its final six games. He was a coaching intern for the NFL's Tennessee Titans before joining the South Dakota staff.

Hodge's first year coaching at South Dakota was highlighted by a three-game win streak in the first half of the season in which the Coyotes held their three foes to a combined 745 yards and 16 points. It marked the first time since 2008 that USD held three consecutive foes to 16 points or fewer. USD went on to knock off fifth-ranked South Dakota State on Senior Day inside the DakotaDome when the Coyotes stopped three fourth-quarter drives to preserve a 24-21 victory.

Year two was unique at South Dakota in that it was reduced to four games due to the COVID-19 pandemic and was conducted in the spring of 2021. Rush linebacker Jacob Matthew led the team in sacks and tackles-for-loss for the second year in a row and was rewarded with honorable mention All-MVFC honors. South Dakota forced nine turnovers and produced seven sacks in four games, highlighted by a 27-20 upset at No. 7 Illinois State in the season opener. Two of the team's four games were against FCS Top 10 teams.

Warren Ruggiero

Senior Analyst
First Year at Iowa

Warren Ruggiero is in his first season as senior analyst for the University of Iowa football program. Ruggiero has over three decades of coaching and developing quarterbacks, along with extensive offensive coordinating experience at the collegiate level.

Ruggiero spent the last 11 seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Wake Forest. The native of Glen Rock, New Jersey, coordinated the most prolific offenses in Wake Forest history six of the last seven seasons and was a Broyles Award finalist in 2021.

Under Ruggiero, the Deacons set nearly 400 school records including marks for points scored, points per game, total offensive yards, first downs and passing yards from 2018-22. Additionally, Wake Forest has produced the second-most points in the ACC over the last eight seasons.

Ruggiero helped orchestrate not only one of the most potent offenses in the history of the program, but also one of the most prolific in the history of the ACC in 2021. That season, Wake Forest scored a program-best 574 points and averaged a school-record 41 points per game. That point total ranks 43rd in modern FBS history and the fourth-most in ACC history. In the College Football Playoff Era, Wake Forest was one of 10 teams to eclipse 500 points scored in a single season.

From 2017-22, Ruggiero and the Deacons were the only football program in the ACC to average at least 30 points per game each year, had the ninth highest rated scoring offense in the country, ranked 12th in total touchdowns scored (333) and scored the most points over a six-year period in school history (2,667).

Wake Forest's 1,367 points scored during the 2020-22 period is the highest-scoring three-year period in Deacon history. Additionally, Wake Forest were the only ACC school to score more than 1,000 points in 2021-22 combined (1,043) and their scoring average of 38.6 points per game ranked sixth during that time. A key to the scoring success was the passing attack in the 2021 and 2022 seasons. Wake Forest was one of six schools to throw for more than 8,000 yards in that time and nearly 600 yards more than any other ACC team.

Individually, Ruggiero coached QB Sam Hartman, to second-team All-ACC honors in 2021 and third-team all-conference accolades in 2022. Hartman was named Wake Forest's bowl game MVP in the 2021 Gator Bowl and in the 2022 Gasparilla Bowl. Ruggiero led Hartman and the Demon Deacons offense to re-write the Wake Forest and Atlantic Coast Conference record book.

Hartman, who was named the 2022 Brian Piccolo Award winner by the ACC, set the conference's record for career touchdown passes with 110 in his storied career. Specifically in 2022, Wake Forest tossed a program record and FBS-leading 43 touchdown passes.

Individually, wideout A.T. Perry earned first-team All-ACC honors in 2021 and 2022 and owns the program for touchdown receptions (28). Additionally, that total ties for seventh in ACC history. Perry found the end zone a combined 26 times in that two-year span, including a school-record 15 scoring receptions in 2021, which tied for second among all FBS wideouts in 2021 and 2022.

Hartman and Perry finished their Wake Forest careers as one of the top QB-WR duos in conference history. The pair combined for 27 touchdowns, which tied for the second most in ACC history. Perry ended his career ranked third in program lore in career receiving yards (2,662) and sixth in receptions (171).

Ruggiero was an offensive coordinator at six universities prior to Wake Forest and has tutored quarterbacks for 32 years at the college level. His offense has finished in the top 10 in the country in either total offense or scoring offense at all six stops. Ruggiero's units have finished in the top six in the country in passing offense at the last four stops. He has coached an All-American QB at five of his last six coaching jobs.

Ruggiero is a 1988 graduate of the University of Delaware, where he played quarterback and served as a graduate assistant while earning both a bachelor's and master's degree in physical education.

1889 - Played first intercollegiate game.

Consensus all American Randy Duncan was named the Helms Foundation Player of the Year and received Walter Camp Trophy.

1960 - Shared Big Ten title with Minnesota and compiled 8-1 record. Recognized as national champions by four different research outlets (Berryman, Boand System, Litkenhous, Sagarin Ratings).

1963 - Notre Dame game was cancelled following the assassination of President Kennedy.

1964 - Some 28 Iowa and Big Ten offensive records were broken despite 3-6 season.

1968 - Set Big Ten scoring and total offense marks. Ed Podolak rushed for an Iowa record 286 yards (17 attempts) against Northwestern.

1972 - Iowa Stadium was renamed Kinnick Stadium in honor of Iowa's Heisman Trophy winner of 1939. AstroTurf was installed.

1981 - Coach Hayden Fry's third season produced a Big Ten co championship and Rose Bowl berth, earning Iowa's first winning season in 19 years. DE Andre Tippett and P Reggie Roby were consensus all Americans.

1982 - Fourth straight first division Big Ten finish and a 28-22 Peach Bowl win over Tennessee.

1983 - Offense breaks 35 school records on way to 9-3 mark and third straight bowl trip (Gator) under Coach Hayden Fry.

1984 - Played in a postseason bowl game for the fourth straight year, defeating Texas 55-17 in the inaugural Freedom Bowl. Shut out Michigan for the first time since 1929 and won first game in 28 years at Purdue.

1985 - Won a school record 10 games enroute to the Big Ten championship and played in the Rose Bowl (vs. UCLA) for the second time in five seasons. Spent five weeks ranked No. 1 in the nation. QB Chuck Long (winner of the Maxwell Trophy and Davey O'Brien Quarterback Award) and Larry Station were consensus all Americans.

1986 - Champion of the ninth annual Holiday Bowl with a 39-38 triumph over San Diego State. A 9-3 overall mark helped Hayden Fry's Hawkeyes win at least eight games for the sixth consecutive season.

1987 - Ten victories tied the school record and included Holiday Bowl triumph over Wyoming (20-19). Six-game winning streak to end the year earned Iowa its fifth consecutive Top 20 finish.

1988 - Iowa played North Carolina State in the Peach Bowl, the school's eighth straight postseason appearance. A 6-4-3 season set an Iowa record for ties. TE Marv Cook was a consensus all American.

1989 - A natural grass playing surface (PAT) was installed in Kinnick Stadium.

1990 - The capacity of Kinnick Stadium was expanded to 70,220. Iowa earned its third Big Ten title and Rose Bowl berth under Hayden Fry, posting an 8-4 overall record. Iowa's "Road Warriors" earned the trip to Pasadena by defeating Michigan State, Michigan and Illinois, all on the road. Hawkeyes ended season ranked 18th nationally. RB Nick Bell was named Big Ten MVP.

1991 - Iowa tied the school record of 10 wins, posting a 10-1-1 record. The only loss came at the hands of Big Ten champion Michigan as the Hawkeyes were 7-1 in league play. The Hawkeyes made their third appearance in the Holiday Bowl, which ended in a 13-13 tie with BYU. DE Leroy Smith earned consensus All-America status and was named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year. Iowa ended the season ranked 10th nationally by both the AP and CNN/USA Today.

1992 - Iowa appeared in its second Kickoff Classic and hosted No. 1 Miami (FL) in first night game ever played in Kinnick Stadium. Iowa's fifth place Big Ten finish was the 13th first-division finish for Iowa in 14 seasons under Hayden Fry.

1993 - Iowa closed the regular season with four straight wins to earn an invitation to the inaugural Alamo Bowl in San Antonio, Texas. Iowa lost to California (37-3) in the bowl game and ended the season with a 6-6 record. Iowa's 21-3 win over Minnesota in the season finale not only assured the bowl invitation, but was also win No. 200 in the coaching career of Hayden Fry.

1994 - Iowa again closed the season fast, earning three wins and a tie in the last four games to post a 5-5-1 mark. The Hawkeyes fought back from injuries at the quarterback position to score 98 points in the final two games, wins over Northwestern and Minnesota. Five Iowa quarterbacks were injured during the year.

1995 - Following the trend of the past few seasons, Iowa closed fast, winning its final two games of the regular season to earn an invitation to the Sun Bowl. Iowa ended the year in fine fashion, racing past Pac-10 co-champion Washington 38-18 in the Sun Bowl and ending the year with an 8-4 record, including a 4-4 Big Ten mark. Iowa was ranked in the top 25 in the final polls by the Associated Press, UPI and CNN/USA Today.

1996 - Iowa posted a 9-3 record, including a 27-0 win over Texas Tech in the Builder's Square Alamo Bowl. The Hawkeyes posted a 6-2 Big Ten record, earning a tie for third place with Penn State. Iowa ended the season ranked 18th in the nation in both the AP poll and the CNN/USA Today Coaches Poll. PR Tim Dwight and DT Jared DeVries earned All-American honors and RB Sedrick Shaw rushed for over 1,000 yards for the third consecutive season.

1997 - If ever the Hawkeyes had a season that could have been, 1997 would be the year. Iowa posted a 7-5 overall record (4-4 in the Big Ten) and participated in the Norwest Sun Bowl, earning its third straight bowl invitation. But narrow road losses at national champion Michigan (28-24), Wisconsin (13-10) and Northwestern (15-14) put a damper on what could have been a great season. RB Tavian Banks, WR Tim Dwight and DT Jared DeVries earned All-American honors and Dwight led the nation in punt returns.

1998 - On Nov. 25, 1998, Hayden Fry announced his retirement as head coach after a successful 20-year career with the Hawkeyes. Fry had a record of 143-89-6 at Iowa and a 232-178-10 mark over his 37 seasons as a college head football coach.

Iowa struggled to a 3-8 record on the field, with five of the eight losses coming to teams ranked in the final top 25. Three Hawkeye losses came at the hands of teams ranked in the top six in the country.

Iowa was led on offense by three freshmen, as QB Kyle McCann led the team in passing, RB Ladell Betts led the team in rushing and WR Kahlil Hill led the team in receiving. Senior DT Jared DeVries earned consensus All-America honors.

1999 - Kirk Ferentz began a new coaching era as Iowa finished the season with a 1-10 record while facing what was regarded as the fourth strongest schedule in the nation. Three of Iowa's losses went down to the final play of the game, with the Hawkeyes allowing a score at Northwestern and failing to score from inside the 10-yardline in home losses to Indiana and Minnesota.

2000 - Iowa opened the season in the Eddie Robinson Classic against Kansas State on Aug. 26, marking the earliest date ever for an Iowa football game. The Hawkeyes, facing the sixth-strongest schedule in the nation, posted a 3-9 overall record. The Hawkeyes won their first overtime game ever, 26-23 at Penn State, in double overtime. A late season 27-17 win over Northwestern forced the Wildcats to share the Big Ten title. Iowa finished strong, winning two of final three games to set the table for the success of 2001 and 2002.

2001 - Iowa opened the season with three straight wins and ended the season winning three of its final four games, including a 19-16 victory over Texas Tech in the Alamo Bowl. The Hawkeyes posted an overall 7-5 record and tied for fourth in the Big Ten with a 4-4 mark. All five of Iowa's setbacks came by less than 10 points. Iowa led the Big Ten in scoring (32.6) as Coach Kirk Ferentz led Iowa to a bowl win in just his third season.

2002 - Iowa posted a perfect 8-0 record in Big Ten play to earn a share of the conference title with Ohio State. After a 3-1 start in non-conference play, the Hawkeyes began league play with a 42-35 overtime win at Penn State and went on to earn the league title in Coach Kirk Ferentz' fourth year. Iowa posted a final mark of 11-2 after a loss to Southern California in the 2003 Orange Bowl in Miami. Iowa earned its first-ever Bowl Championship Series invitation.

Ferentz earned Big Ten and national Coach of the Year honors, while 11 Hawkeyes were named first team all-Big Ten. QB Brad Banks placed second in the voting for the Heisman Trophy and was the Big Ten Conference MVP. Banks was also the Associated Press Player of the Year and earned the Davey O'Brien Award as the top quarterback in the nation. OL Eric Steinbach was the Big Ten Lineman of the year, while TE Dallas Clark earned the John Mackey Award and PK Nate Kaeding earned the Lou Groza award.

Iowa averaged over 37 points a game in leading the Big Ten in scoring for the second straight season, while the Hawkeye defense ranked fifth in the nation against the run.

2003 - For the first time in school history, Iowa won 10 or more games in consecutive seasons after posting a 10-3 mark in 2003, putting an exclamation mark on the season with a 37-17 win over Florida in the 2004 Outback Bowl.

Iowa's 21 wins over the past two seasons are the most ever for Iowa football in a two-year period. The Hawkeyes finished the season ranked eighth in the final polls, the first back-to-back top 10 finishes for Iowa football since the 1950's. Coupled with the 2003 Orange Bowl, Iowa also has played in January bowl games in consecutive seasons for the first time in the history of the program.

The Hawkeyes opened the season with four straight wins in non-conference play. After a loss at Michigan State, Iowa returned home for a 30-27 win over Michigan, handing the Wolverines their only loss in Big Ten play. After a loss at Purdue in early November, Iowa closed the regular season with wins over Minnesota and Wisconsin. The bowl win over Florida gave the Hawkeyes three straight wins over ranked opponents.

Offensive tackle Robert Gallery was named a consensus All-American and became Iowa's third Outland Trophy winner as the nation's top interior lineman. PK Nate Kaeding was also a first team all-American for the second straight season, becoming Iowa's all-time scoring leader while setting 14 school records during his career.

2004 - Winning its last eight games of the season, Iowa posted a 10-2 record, sharing the Big Ten Conference title for the second time in three seasons. The Hawkeyes defeated Wisconsin in Kinnick Stadium on the final day of the regular season to earn the title share with Michigan.

Playing in its third straight January bowl game, Iowa scored a thrilling 30-25 win over defending national champion LSU in the 2005 Capital One Bowl. The Hawkeyes scored the winning touchdown on a 56-yard pass from QB Drew Tate to senior WR Warren Holloway on the final play of the game.

Iowa started the season with a 2-2 mark before making its championship run. The win over Wisconsin increased Iowa's winning streak to 18 straight home games and 13 straight conference games, both school records.

Tate, DE Matt Roth, LB Chad Greenway and LB Abdul Hodge were named first team All-Big Ten, while Coach Kirk Ferentz was named Big Ten Conference Coach of the Year for the second time in three seasons.

2005 - Iowa finished the 2005 season with a 7-5 record and in a third-place tie in the Big Ten standings. A pair of heartbreaking, last minute losses to Michigan and Northwestern is all that separated Iowa from at least a piece of its third league title in four years. The Hawkeyes' success earned them their second Outback Bowl appearance in three years.

Despite a year of triumphs and disappointments, Iowa finished the year as one of only four teams in the nation to have played in January bowl games the last four years.

LB Chad Greenway, DB Jovon Johnson and DE Kenny Iwebema were named All-Big Ten first team, while LB Abdul Hodge, RB Albert Young and PK Kyle Schlicher earned second team accolades.

2006 - Iowa started the season winning five of its first six games and becoming a fixture in the nation's top 20. The second half of the season was just the opposite as injuries took their toll and the Hawkeyes dropped five of their final six regular season contests.

But, Iowa did well enough to get invited to its sixth straight bowl game and came excruciatingly close to an upset of the defending national champion Texas Longhorns in the Alamo Bowl, before succumbing (26-24). The game was played before the biggest sports crowd ever to witness a sporting event in the Alamodome.

OL Mike Jones was named to the coaches first All-Big Ten team. OL Marshal Yanda, LB Mike Klinkenborg, TE Scott Chandler and DB Marcus Paschal were second team choices.

Iowa was the only team in the country to have three players (OL Mike Elgin, DB Adam Shada and LB Mike Klinkenborg) represented on the first Academic All-America team.

2007 - Iowa finished the season with a 6-6 overall record. Iowa finished tied for fifth in the Big Ten with a 4-4 mark. After starting the season with a 2-4 record, Iowa won four of its last six and just missed being selected for a bowl game. The Hawkeyes were bowl eligible for the seventh straight season and finished in the Big Ten's upper division for the sixth time in seven years. Iowa broke the school record for fewest turnovers in a season (13).

DT Mitch King earned first team All-Big Ten laurels by the coaches and second team honors by the media. CB Charles Godfrey was recognized on the second team by the coaches and was an honorable mention honoree by the media.

Iowa's offense won't make any excuses, but... at least 11 players who appeared on the spring, or early fall, two-deep were either off the roster or injured for a significant amount of time. The Iowa offense could have looked much different with some of the following names on the two-deep: WR Andy Brodell, OL Dace Richardson, OL Rob Bruggeman, OL Bryan Bulaga, OL Alex Kanellis, TE Tony Moeaki, WR Colin Sandeman, WR Dominique Douglas, WR Anthony Bowman, WR Trey Stross and RB Shonn Greene.

2008 - Led by a great group of 15 seniors, Iowa won five of its last six games and earned a spot in the prestigious Jan. 1 Outback Bowl against South Carolina, winning 31-10.

The 2008 Hawkeyes finished the season with a 9-4 record and were ranked 20th in both final major polls. The Outback Bowl champions became the fourth Iowa team in the last seven years to win at least nine games. The Hawkeyes also played in a January bowl game for the fifth time in seven years.

Along the way, running back Shonn Greene broke seven school records and three school individual bowl records en route to becoming a consensus all-American and won the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back. Greene also was named the Big Ten's Most Valuable Player. On the defensive side, Mitch King also earned All-America honors and was named Big Ten Defensive Lineman of the Year.

The Hawkeyes tied for fourth (5-3 league record) and wound up as the league's only winner in the bowl season. Iowa's four losses came by a combined 12 points.

Iowa ranked in the top 20, nationally, in six statistical categories (5th - Pass efficiency defense, scoring defense and fewest penalty yards; 9th - rushing defense; 12th - total defense; 19th - red zone defense).

2009 - The 2009 Hawkeyes will be remembered as one of the most entertaining, talented and successful teams in Hawkeye history. The 11 wins equal (2002) the program record for victories in a season. The regular season win total of 10 was achieved for only the fourth time. For the first time ever, the Hawkeyes won their first nine games of a season. And, for the sixth time in eight years, Iowa played in a January bowl game. And, more importantly, Iowa won a BCS caliber bowl game for the first time since 1959.

Iowa posted an 11-2 overall record and a 6-2 Big Ten mark, good enough for a second-place tie with Penn State. The Hawkeyes won at least nine games for the fifth time in the last eight years and won 10 games or more for the seventh time in school history.

In addition to Iowa's 24-14 win over ninth-ranked Georgia Tech in the FedEx Orange Bowl, the Hawkeyes posted road wins at Penn State, Wisconsin, Michigan State and Iowa State. An overtime loss at eventual league champion Ohio State was the only road blemish. A seven-point home loss to Northwestern was Iowa's only other setback. The Hawkeyes posted four wins by three points or less for the first time in school history.

Another road block during the 2009 season was an unusually high number of injuries to several starters. The loss of two offensive linemen, tight end, quarterback, running backs, receivers, defensive backs and a linebacker were all part of the scenario Iowa's coaching staff had to deal with. All of the above mentioned positions lost starters for at least part of the season

The Hawkeyes ranked seventh in both major polls at the conclusion of the season, the highest final ranking for the program since 1960.

Individually, several Hawkeyes reaped the rewards of the successful season. Defensive end Adrian Clayborn was named MVP of the FedEx Orange Bowl. Coach Kirk Ferentz was named Big Ten Coach of the Year for the third time. Offensive tackle Bryan Bulaga was picked as the league's Offensive Lineman of the Year. He joined Dace Richardson (OL), Tony Moeaki (TE), Clayborn (DE), Pat Angerer (LB), Tyler Sash (DB) and Amari Spievey (DB) on the first All-Big Ten team. Six Hawkeyes were selected in the 2010 NFL Draft.

2010 - Iowa concluded the season with a 27-24 win over 12th-ranked Missouri in the Insight Bowl. The Hawkeyes earned their second straight bowl victory over a top-15 opponent and won three consecutive bowl games for the first time in school history.

The Insight Bowl win over the Tigers marked Iowa's fourth 2010 victory over a ranked opponent, the most by an Iowa team since 2003. Iowa played seven ranked opponents in 2010, the most for the Hawkeyes under Kirk Ferentz.

Iowa posted a 7-5 regular season record, including a 4-4 mark in Big Ten Conference play (fourth). The Hawkeyes placed in the first division of the Big Ten for the ninth time in the last 10 years.

Iowa's record came against one of the toughest schedules in the nation. In each of Iowa's five losses, the Hawkeyes were either tied or leading in the fourth quarter. GAME RECAP

Switching from the mighty defensive role they played all season (which included four shutouts), Iowa put on a great offensive show to defeat Oregon State 35-19 in the 43rd Rose Bowl.

It was the school's first bowl appearance. Iowa assumed an early lead on game MVP Kenny Ploen's 49-yard run. Ploen also completed 9-of-10 passes. Collins Hagler scored two TDs and totaled a game-best 85 rushing yards.

Iowa played Oregon State during the regular season and had also won that encounter, 14-13.

The Rose Bowl win was the Big Ten's 10th win in 11 games against its west coast opponents. Over 15,000 Hawkeye fans attended the game.

Teddy Jo Faley led Iowa's defenders with 14 tackles, including 13 solo stops.

California exploded for 17 points in the second quarter and defeated Iowa 37-3 in the inaugural Alamo Bowl.

The Golden Bears built a 9-0 lead on three field goals by Doug Brien, then expanded their advantage to 16-0 on a six-yard touchdown pass from Dave Barr to Mike Caldwell.

Iowa's deficit increased when Jerrott Willard picked off a Paul Burmeister pass and ran it 61 yards for a score just before halftime. Iowa's only points in the second half came on a 42-yard field goal by Brion Hurley in the third quarter.

Iowa finished the season with a 6-6 record. A bright spot was punter Nick Gallery, who averaged 43 yards on eight punts. Harold Jasper had four pass receptions for 55 yards to lead Iowa's receivers. Larry Blue received the Alamo Bowl Sportsmanship Award.

The game marked Coach Hayden Fry's first return to his home state for a game since he took the Iowa job 15 years earlier.

GAME RECAP

Iowa jumped out to the early lead and didn't look back, defeating Pac-10 co-champion Washington, 38-18, in the 62nd annual Sun Bowl.

Sedrick Shaw started the Iowa scoring by taking a handoff and running 58 yards for a touchdown only 1:52 into the game.

Kickers Brion Hurley and Zach Bromert each added a pair of field goals. A snap over the punter's head led to a safety and a 21-0 halftime lead for the Hawkeyes. Hurley kicked his third field goal of the day from 50 yards out as Iowa's lead climbed to 24 in the third quarter.

Washington got on the board for the first time at the 8:37 mark of the third quarter when Shane Fortney hit Jerome Pathon on a 30-yard touchdown pass.

Iowa fullback Michael Burger scored on runs of eight- and one-yard to increase the score to 38-6 before Washington added two late scores.

The Iowa defense recorded four sacks while forcing three fumbles.

Hawkeye running backs Shaw (135) and Tavian Banks (122) each rushed for over 100 yards. The win moved Iowa's final record to 8-4.

GAME RECAP

In its first trip back to San Antonio since losing to California 37-3 in the inaugural 1993 Alamo Bowl, Iowa's defense put on a clinic in stopping the run - one runner in particular.

Iowa's group of run-stoppers, headed by sophomore linebackers Matt Hughes and Vernon Rollins, held Doak Walker Award winner and 2,000-yard rusher Byron Hanspard to 64 yards rushing on 18 attempts. In the process the Hawkeyes shut down Texas Tech for a dominating 27-0 win.

Hanspard's longest run of the evening was 17 yards, as Iowa controlled the line of scrimmage and limited the Red Raiders to 60 yards total rushing.

The victory was Iowa's second shutout of the season (the Hawkeyes also blanked Wisconsin 31-0). And while Hanspard was held in check throughout, Iowa senior Sedrick Shaw was unstoppable as he rushed for 113 yards on 20 carries and one touchdown. Shaw's second touchdown run was impressive, as he broke three tackles enroute to the end zone.

Matt Sherman led a consistent Iowa offense with 126 yards passing - 105 to wide receiver Tim Dwight. The Hawkeye ground attack churned for 217 yards. Hughes finished with eight tackles, while Rollins added five.

Sophomore Jared DeVries finished with two sacks and five tackles, three for a loss. Shaw and DeVries were named offensive and defensive MVP's, respectively.

GAME RECAP

An incredible defensive effort by Arizona State picked apart Iowa's ninth-ranked offense and earned the Sun Devils a 17-7 win in the Norwest Sun Bowl.

The Sun Devil offense overshadowed Iowa, as ASU rushed for 268 yards and compiled 377 yards total offense. RB Tavian Banks sparked the offense on Iowa's second possession, breaking loose for a 26-yard run to the ASU 30. Unfortunately, for Iowa, ASU held the nation's fourth-best rusher to only 52 yards in the game.

In the second quarter ASU set a seven-play, 55-yard scoring drive into motion, and never looked back. The Sun Devils recovered an Iowa fumble late in the first half and added a field goal for a 10-0 halftime advantage.

Iowa was able to score on a six-play, 87-yard scoring drive, under the direction of quarterback Randy Reiners, late in the fourth quarter.

Linebackers Raj Clark and Matt Hughes led the Iowa defense, each recording 12 tackles, while CB Ed Gibson added 11. Jared DeVries contributed nine tackles, two tackles for loss and one sack.

Iowa punter Jason Baker was named Sun Bowl Special Teams MVP after averaging 48. 9 yards per punt, including a Sun Bowl-record 76-yarder.

GAME RECAP

Nate Kaeding kicked a 47-yard field goal with 44 seconds to play in the game and defensive back Bob Sanders intercepted a Texas Tech pass in the endzone on the final play as Iowa defeated the Red Raiders 19-16 in the 2001 Alamo Bowl. The Hawkeyes ended the season with a 7-5 overall record with the bowl victory. The crowd of 65,232 marked the second largest crowd in Alamo Bowl history.

The Hawkeye drove 53 yards in eight plays for the final score of the game, which was the fourth field goal of the day for Kaeding. Texas Tech had tied the score at 16-16 with 2:05 remaining before Iowa's game winning drive. Iowa QB Kyle McCann accounted for most of the yardage in the final scoring drive. He completed three straight passes for 41 totals yards and then scrambled for 16 yards to the Tech 26-yardline to set up Kaeding's game winning kick.

Kaeding tied an Iowa record with the four field goals, which came from 36, 31, 46 and 47 yards. Iowa took an early 10-0 lead in the first half, using a ball control offense to keep the Red Raider passing attack on the sidelines. Tech got on the scoreboard on the final play of the half on a 50-yard field goal and tied the score at 10-10 on its first possession of the third quarter.

An interception by Iowa's Derrick Pickens led to an Iowa field goal for a 13-10 advantage and good field position led to Kaeding's 46-yard effort that put Iowa in front 16-10. Pickens was named the Outstanding Defensive Player of the Game, while RB Aaron Greving earned that award for offense. Filling in for the injured Ladell Betts, Greving rushed 25 times for 115 yards, including a one-yard scoring run for Iowa's only touchdown. McCann completed 19-26 passes for 161 yards, with no interceptions.

Along with the interception on the final play of the game, Sanders led the Iowa defense with 11 tackles. Grant Steen added eight stops and Benny Sapp had seven tackles and an interception. Iowa's defense held Texas Tech to just 80 net rushing yards.

GAME RECAP

Southern Cal's big second half lifted the Trojans past Iowa, 38-17 in the 2003 FedEx Orange Bowl. Iowa, which saw its nine-game winning streak come to an end, completed the season with an 11-2 overall record and an eighth place ranking in the final polls.

Hawkeye C. J. Jones opened the game by returning the kickoff an Orange Bowl record 100 yards, giving Iowa an early 7-0 lead. The Trojans quickly answered with a four-play, 79-yard drive that ended with a Justin Fargas four-yard run.

Iowa and USC each added 35-yard field goals before the half. Iowa had an opportunity to take the lead, but a seven-play, 41-yard drive stalled on the USC one-yard line as the half ended and USC blocked an Iowa field goal attempt on the final play.

USC controlled the second half by scoring touchdowns on its first three possessions. USC's defense stifled the Hawkeyes. Heisman Trophy winning QB Carson Palmer led USC by completing 21 of 31 passes for 303 yards and one touchdown. He was named the Orange Bowl MVP. Fargas became only the second Hawkeye opponent to eclipse 100 rushing yards as he gained 122 in 20 attempts. His rushing numbers included a 50-yard scoring scamper that marked the longest run against the Iowa defense all season.

QB Brad Banks completed 15-36 passes for 204 yards and one touchdown. Banks threw 103 consecutive passes without an interception before USC's Jason Leach picked one off in the fourth quarter. Banks also rushed eight times for 36 yards. His 423 rushing yards is an Iowa record for quarterbacks in a season.

WR Maurice Brown and TE Dallas Clark led the Iowa receivers. Brown had six receptions for 63 yards and a touchdown, while Clark tallied four receptions for 97 yards. Brown's 18-yard touchdown reception in the fourth quarter broke the school record for TD receptions in a season. Jones ran back four kickoffs for 169 yards, which is an Orange Bowl record and an Iowa bowl game record for return yards.

Defensive backs Bob Sanders and Derek Pagel led Iowa's defensive unit recording 13 and 10 tackles, respectively. The Iowa defense sacked Palmer four times, which included DE Matt Roth's team-leading 11th sack in the second quarter.

GAME RECAP

After falling behind 7-0 in the first quarter, Iowa scored 27 unanswered points en route to a 37-17 triumph over No. 17 Florida in the 2004 Outback Bowl. The victory was Iowa's first over the Gators and its first January bowl win since the 1959 Rose Bowl. After allowing an early Florida touchdown, Iowa scored on three of its next four possessions to end the half.

WR Maurice Brown caught a three-yard touchdown pass from QB Nathan Chandler to even the game at 7-7 late in the first quarter. PK Nate Kaeding converted a 47-yard field goal to give Iowa the lead, and the Hawkeyes followed with a Chandler five-yard scoring run. A 32-yard Kaeding field goal gave Iowa a 20-7 halftime lead.

Iowa maintained momentum in the second half after holding Florida to a three-and-out on its first possession. Matt Melloy blocked the Florida punt and also recovered it in the end zone for a touchdown. It marked the first time in Iowa bowl history that a Hawkeye player both blocked and recovered a punt for a touchdown.

The Gators added a field goal on their next possession, but two possessions later Iowa RB Fred Russell, who was named Outback Bowl MVP, scampered 34 yards for a touchdown to give Iowa a commanding 34-10 advantage. Kaeding added a 38-yard field goal to end Iowa's scoring.

Russell finished with 204 all-purpose yards. He carried the ball 21 times for 150 yards and one touchdown and returned three kickoffs for 54 yards. Chandler completed 13-25 passes for 170 yards, one passing touchdown, one rushing score and no interceptions. Brown caught six passes for 96 yards and one score.

Defensively, Iowa held the Gators to an Outback Bowl record-low 57 rushing yards, marking the eighth time in 2003 that the Hawkeyes held their opponents to 75 yards or less on the ground. DB Sean Considine collected a game-high nine tackles (three solo, six assists). LB Abdul Hodge registered eight stops (three solo, five assists). DT Tyler Luebke, DE Matt Roth and DE Howard Hodges each recorded one sack.

GAME RECAP

Fifth-year senior Warren Holloway caught an improbable 56-yard game-winning touchdown pass from QB Drew Tate as time expired to lift Iowa to a thrilling 30-25 triumph over 11th-ranked LSU in the 2005 Capital One Bowl. The 56-yard bomb on the final play was arguably the best finish in bowl history. The reception was Holloway's first career touchdown.

Iowa grabbed an early 7-0 lead when Tate connected with WR Clinton Solomon on a 57-yard score on its first possession. The 57-yarder tied Iowa's longest touchdown reception in a bowl game (Dave Moritz from Chuck Long in the 1982 Peach Bowl). LSU cut the Hawkeye lead to 7-6 on a pair of field goals midway through the second quarter. Iowa extended its lead to 14-6 when Miguel Merrick blocked a punt and Sean Considine returned the ball seven yards for a touchdown. The Tigers answered on their next possession with a 74-yard touchdown run but failed to convert the extra point.

PK Kyle Schlicher scored the only points of the third quarter on a 19-yard field goal to stretch Iowa's lead to 17-12. RB Marques Simmons scored on a four-yard run with 12:48 remaining to give the Hawkeyes a 24-12 advantage. LSU rallied with a pair of touchdown passes to WR Skyler Green (22 and three yards) as the Tigers took their first lead of the game, 25-24, with 46 seconds left.

Tate drove Iowa to the 44-yard line before throwing the pass to Holloway as the final seconds clicked off the clock. The victory gave Iowa its 10th win of the year, marking the third straight season the Hawkeyes have collected 10 wins or more.

Tate was named the Capital One Bowl MVP, while DL Jonathan Babineaux was recognized as Iowa's Defensive MVP. Tate completed 20-32 passes for 287 yards and two touchdowns. The scoring passes of 56 and 57 yards marked the first time an Iowa quarterback has tossed two touchdowns over 50 yards in a bowl game.

WR Ed Hinkel caught a career and game-high 10 passes for 93 yards, one reception shy of an Iowa bowl record. Solomon caught four passes for 81 yards and one score, while Holloway caught four passes for 72 yards and one touchdown.

Defensively, Iowa recorded 10 tackles for loss, including five sacks. LB Abdul Hodge racked up a game-high 15 tackles (10 solo), including 2. 5 sacks. LB Chad Greenway tallied nine tackles (seven solo), including one for loss. Babineaux registered seven tackles (five solo), including 4. 5 for loss and 2. 5 sacks. Additionally, the Hawkeyes' special teams blocked two punts, including returning one for a touchdown.

Iowa finished the season ranked eighth for the third consecutive year. The Hawkeyes finished in the top 10 three straight seasons for only the second time ever (1956-58).

GAME RECAP

Florida scored the game's first 17 points and held off a late Iowa surge to defeat the Hawkeyes 31-24 in the 2006 Outback Bowl. The Gators blocked and returned an Iowa punt for a score on Iowa's first possession to take a 7-0 advantage. Florida then added a 21-yard field goal and returned an interception 60 yards to take a 17-0 lead with 1:57 left in the first half.

Iowa scored its first points on a 20-yard touchdown pass from QB Drew Tate to WR Clinton Solomon. However, the Gators answered the Hawkeye score with a touchdown with one second left in the period to take a 24-7 halftime advantage.

Florida added a 38-yard touchdown pass for the only score of the third quarter, but Iowa rallied to score 17 fourth-quarter points to make for an exciting finish. WR Ed Hinkel caught touchdown passes of four and 14 yards from Tate, while PK Kyle Schlicher converted a 45-yard field goal to cut the Florida lead to 34-21 with 1:24 left. Iowa's comeback fell short as the Hawkeyes failed to recover an onside kick. On the previous play, Iowa recovered the onside kick, only to be flagged for an offside penalty.

Tate completed 32-55 passes for 346 yards and three scores; the 32 pass completions and 55 attempts established Iowa bowl records. Hinkel caught a team-high nine passes for 87 yards and tied an Iowa bowl record with two touchdown receptions. Damian Sims tied an Iowa bowl record with five kickoff returns for 107 yards.

Florida QB Chris Leak completed 25-40 passes for 278 yards and two TDs. Leak's two touchdown passes went to Outback Bowl MVP, WR Dallas Baker, who caught 10 passes for 147 yards.

LB Abdul Hodge amassed an Outback Bowl and Iowa bowl record 19 tackles (14 solo) to lead the Hawkeye defense. DB Antwan Allen and DB Marcus Paschal each added 10 tackles, while LB Chad Greenway recorded nine stops. Allen became the first Iowa player to start in four January bowl games.

GAME RECAP

Texas outscored Iowa 23-10 in the final three periods en route to a 26-24 Alamo Bowl victory over the Hawkeyes in front of a bowl-record 65,875 fans in the Alamodome. Iowa sprinted out of the gates, scoring touchdowns on its first two possessions. RB Albert Young scored on a one-yard run and WR Andy Brodell caught a 63-yard touchdown pass from QB Drew Tate. The 63-yard pass is the longest TD pass in Iowa bowl history.

After a Texas field goal, Iowa looked to stretch its lead to 21-3 on a nine-yard touchdown reception by TE Scott Chandler, but a flag negated the score. Texas intercepted a Tate pass in the end zone on the very next play. The Longhorns took advantage of Iowa's misfortune and turned the turnover in seven points. Iowa took a 14-10 lead into the half.

The Longhorns scored the next 10 points on a 43-yard field goal and a 72-yard touchdown pass to grab a 20-14 advantage midway through the third period. Iowa quickly answered with a four-play, 68-yard drive that culminated with a 23-yard touchdown reception by Brodell.

Texas responded with a touchdown on the following possession to go up 26-21. Iowa added a PK Kyle Schlicher 38-yard field goal late in the fourth quarter to cut the deficit to 26-24. The Longhorns became the first team to win the Alamo Bowl when trailing at the half.

Tate completed 15-25 passes for 274 yards and two touchdowns. Brodell tied an Iowa bowl record with two touchdown receptions and matched a career high with 159 receiving yards on six receptions. Furthermore, the 159 yards is an Alamo Bowl receiving record, besting Michigan's Amani Toomer's 135 yards set in 1995.

GAME RECAP

Iowa used record setting performances on both offense and defense to earn a 27-24 win over 12th-ranked Missouri in the 2010 Insight Bowl. The win was the third straight bowl victory for the Hawkeyes and the fourth of the season (in eight games) against a nationally-ranked opponent.

Freshman RB Marcus Coker was the key player for the Iowa offense, rushing 33 times for 219 yards and two touchdowns. Both the rushing attempts and yards established Iowa bowl records.

Sophomore DB Micah Hyde scored the winning points with 5:32 remaining in the game on a 72-yard interception return for a touchdown. That set an Iowa bowl record and ranks as the eighth longest return in school history.

Following Hyde's touchdown, Missouri drove to the Iowa 46 on its next possession, but a pass attempt on fourth-and-six was incomplete and Iowa's offense maintained possession for the final 2:15. Iowa ended the game at the one-yard line as time expired.

Iowa won the toss and elected to start the game on offense. Coker gave the Hawkeyes an early 7-0 advantage with a one-yard scoring run to complete the opening drive. Missouri responded with a field goal on its first drive, but Coker added a 62-yard scoring run early in the second period to give Iowa a 14-3 advantage.

The Hawkeyes added a 34-yard Mike Meyer field goal later in the period before Missouri scored on a 10-yard run to cut Iowa's halftime advantage to 17-10. Brett Greenwood's interception in the end zone ended Missouri's final drive just before halftime.

Iowa's only offensive points of the second half came midway through the third period when Meyer added a 21-yard field goal for a 20-10 advantage, capping a 93-yard scoring drive. The Tigers cut the lead to 20-17 later in the third quarter and took their first advantage at 24-20 with under a minute left in the period.

Hyde's interception return, the fourth for the Hawkeyes in 13 games, was the only scoring in the final quarter.

Stanzi complemented Coker's rushing effort by completing 11-21 passes for 200 yards. Colin Sandeman (4-44) and Reisner (3-50) led Iowa's receivers.

The Iowa defense was led by Greenwood, who collected 11 tackles to go with his second quarter interception. DB Shaun Prater added nine tackles and LB James Morris had seven. DL Karl Klug and DL Christian Ballard each collected a QB sack.

GAME RECAP

No. 14 LSU scored 14-first-half points and ultimately held on to defeat Iowa, 21-14, at the 2014 Outback Bowl in Tampa.

The Tigers drove 77 yards on the first possession of the game to grab a 7-0 advantage. It marked the first offensive touchdown allowed in the opening period by Iowa since the season opener against Northern Illinois (Aug. 31).

In the second quarter, LSU capitalized on a Kevonte Martin-Manley fumbled punt at the 39-yard line, scoring seven plays later on a 14-yard rush to take a 14-0 halftime lead.

John Lowdermilk provided a spark in the third quarter, intercepting QB Anthony Jennings and returning his first career theft 71 yards to the 1-yard line. The 71-yard interception return is the 12th-longest in school history. Three plays later RB Mark Weisman scored on a 2-yard rush to cut the deficit to 14-7.

Midway through the fourth quarter, Iowa marched inside the LSU red zone, but a fourth down interception at the LSU 8-yard line thwarted a game-tying scoring drive.

LSU scored its third touchdown on a Jeremy Hill 37-yard rush, his second score of the game, with 1:50 left to play.

Iowa's Jordon Cotton returned the ensuing kickoff a career-long 96 yards to the LSU 4-yard line. The 96-yard kickoff return is the eighth-longest return in school history and longest non-touchdown kickoff return in Iowa annals. Two plays later, QB C.J. Beathard connected with Martin-Manley in the end zone for a 4-yard touchdown for the final score. Iowa was unable to recover the ensuing onside kick.

QB Jake Rudock completed 9-of-22 passes for 102 yards before leaving in the third period due to injury. Beathard completed 4-of-7 passes for 55 yards and a score.

Weisman rushed 18 times for 37 yards, while TE C.J. Fiedorowicz caught a game-high four passes for 46 yards.

Cotton's 42.7 kickoff return average on three attempts broke the Outback Bowl record for kickoff return average.

Iowa's defense did a good job containing Jennings and the LSU offense, collecting seven tackles for loss, including four sacks, and an interception. LB James Morris recorded eight tackles and reached 400 career tackles in his career -- becoming only the sixth Hawkeye to accomplish that feat.

Weisman scored on runs of three and one yard in the second and fourth quarters, respectively. The Hawkeye senior finished his career with 32 rushing touchdowns, one shy of the school record held by Sedrick Shaw and Tavian Banks.

Beathard connected with TE Ray Hamilton (31 yards) and WR Matt VandeBerg (18 yards) in the fourth period. Beathard finished the game completing 13-of-23 passes for 145 yards. The two passing touchdowns were a single-game career best.

WR Kevonte Martin-Manley caught three passes for 23 yards. His third reception broke the school record for career catches by a Hawkeye with 174. He finished his career with 1,799 career receiving yards, No. 13 all-time. The bowl game was the 51st career game for the Hawkeye senior; Martin-Manley joins five other players to play in 51 career games during the Kirk Ferentz era.

Jordan Canzeri led the Hawkeye ground attack, rushing 12 times for 120 yards -- his second career 100-yard game. His game totals pushed him over the 1,000 yards rushing, becoming the 45th Iowa player to accomplish the feat.

LB Josey Jewell led all players with a career-best 14 tackles and was named Iowa's TaxSlayer Bowl MVP. Jewell, a redshirt freshman, made his fourth career start. LB Quinton Alson (11) and CB Desmond King (10) also reached double-digits in tackles. CB Maurice Fleming (five) and LB Ben Niemann (four) recorded career bests in tackles.

CB Desmond King recorded his second career interception in the third quarter (37-yard return). Iowa's defense has had at least one interception in six straight bowl games.

GAME RECAP

Iowa forced three turnovers and RB Akrum Wadley amassed a career-high 283 all-purpose yards in a 27-20 Iowa victory in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl at Yankee Stadium. The win snapped Iowa's five-game bowl losing streak.

Wadley, who was named Pinstripe Bowl MVP, totaled an Iowa bowl record 171 yards on five kickoff returns. He also totaled 88 rushing yards and 24 yards receiving.

The game was played in frigid temperatures, 23 degrees at kickoff with wind chills in the lower teens, and is the coldest Pinstripe Bowl on record. The Hawkeyes totaled 200 yards of offense, its lowest total in a bowl game win in program history.

Jake Gervase intercepted his third pass of the season on the third play from scrimmage, which resulted in a Miguel Recinos 24-yard field goal for the game's first score.

Boston College RB A.J. Dillon, who rushed a game-high 32 times for 157 yards, scored his only touchdown on a 4-yard run with five seconds left in the first period.

Iowa answered on its next possession with a TE Noah Fant 8-yard scoring reception from QB Nate Stanley. The TD pass was the 26th for Stanley, tying Brad Banks (2002) for second most in a single season in program annals. The score was set up by Wadley's 72-yard kickoff return, a career best.

The Eagles closed the half scoring 10 straight points -- a 39-yard pass play and a 30-yard field goal -- to take a 17-10 advantage into halftime.

Wadley scored his 35th career touchdown, which tied Sedrick Shaw for second most in program history, on a 5-yard rush midway through the third quarter to even the score.

Both teams traded field goals in the fourth quarter before the Iowa defense collected two turnovers in the final five minutes. With the game tied (20-20), DE Anthony Nelson sacked QB Darius Wade and forced a fumble that DE Parker Hesse recovered in Boston College territory. Three plays later, FB Drake Kulick scored his first career rushing touchdown on a 1-yard plunge into the end zone for the eventual game-winning score.

All-American CB Josh Jackson helped seal the win by collecting his eighth interception of the season, tying a school single-season record, on Boston College's next possession. DB Amani Hooker led Iowa's defense with 12 tackles, including two touchdown-saving stops. He was named to the Associated Press All-Bowl teams for his efforts.

WR Matt VandeBerg played in his 54th career game, more than any other player in school history. VandeBerg ended his career having at least one reception in 32 consecutive games played.

2019 Outback Bowl

Iowa 27, #18 Mississippi State 22
January 1, 2019 - Raymond James Stadium, Tampa, Fla.

#18 Mississippi State	6	0	13	3	22
Iowa	0	17	7	3	27

GAME RECAP

Iowa posted an impressive 27-22 win over No. 18 Mississippi State at the 2019 Outback Bowl at Raymond James Stadium, its second straight bowl victory. The win was Iowa's first over a nationally-ranked opponent this season and first over a ranked bowl opponent since 2010.

Iowa was able to rally from a 6-0 deficit in the first quarter to upend the Bulldogs, due in large part to scoring 17 points off three turnovers and not committing a penalty. The Hawkeyes won despite totaling minus-15 yards rushing on 20 attempts, a low for an Iowa team in 32 bowl appearances.

WR Nick Easley was voted the game's MVP, catching eight passes for a career-high 104 yards and two touchdowns – the first multi-touchdown game of his career. His totals increased his career numbers to 103 receptions for 1,024 yards.

The Bulldogs got on the board first, kicking a pair of first-quarter field goals. Iowa answered with 17 unanswered points in the second quarter. Miguel Recinos kicked the first (44) of his two field goals, followed by touchdown passes from QB Nate Stanley to Easley (75 yards) and WR Ihmir Smith-Marsette (15 yards). The 75-yard play is an Iowa bowl record for longest completion and longest touchdown reception.

The Bulldogs recaptured the lead early in the third quarter, capitalizing on two Hawkeye turnovers. Mississippi State scored two touchdowns in 18 seconds.

Easley's second TD catch (8 yards) later in the third quarter gave the Hawkeyes a 24-19 advantage, a lead they did not relinquish. Mississippi State and Iowa traded field goals in the fourth quarter.

Iowa's defense stood tall on the Bulldogs' final possession, forcing Mississippi State to turn the ball over on downs at Iowa's 32-yard line.

Stanley completed his first eight pass attempts, finishing the contest with 214 yards passing and three TD's on 21-of-31 attempts. Stanley finished his junior season with 26 TD passes, tying for the second highest single-season total in school history.

TE T.J. Hockenson caught three passes for 43 yards. Smith-Marsette matched his career best with four receptions and set an Outback Bowl record with 150 kickoff return yards.

DT Chauncey Golston and FS Jake Gervase collected Iowa's two interceptions, raising its season total to 20, second most in the country. Golston also recovered a fumble in the second quarter, which set the table for Iowa's second score. Golston's interception was the first of his career, while Gervase's theft in the end zone prevented a Mississippi State scoring threat in the fourth quarter.

DB Matt Hankins led all tacklers with nine, while CB Michael Ojemudia matched his career high with eight stops. DE A.J. Epenesa had a forced fumble on a sack, raising his season total a team-best 10.5, the highest single-season total by a Hawkeye since Adrian Clayborn (11.5 sacks in 2009).

 Selection Day*

The Heisman Trophy, honoring the most outstanding college football player in the United States, is presented by the Downtown Athletic Club of New York each year. Iowa's Nile Kinnick earned the Heisman Trophy in 1939.

Iowa's Nile Kinnick (1939) and Navy's Roger Staubach (1963) are the only veterans to win the Heisman Trophy. As part of its 2008 Memorial Day tribute to veterans, ESPN named Kinnick as one of its top 10 college athletes to serve in the armed forces.

Along with Kinnick earning the award in 1939, Iowa has had a player finish in the Top 10 in the voting on nine other occasions. Most recently, quarterback Brad Banks placed second in the balloting in 2002. Banks became the fourth Iowa player to place second in the voting, joining Alex Karras in 1957, Randy Duncan in 1958 and Chuck Long in 1985.

In 2008, RB Shonn Greene placed sixth in the voting and was the top vote getter among all running backs. Greene's sixth place finish is the highest for an Iowa running back. He was a consensus All-American and received the Doak Walker Award as the top running back in the nation.

Following are Hawkeye players who have placed in the top 10 in Heisman Trophy voting:

Nile Kinnick Heisman Trophy Acceptance Speech

"Thank you very, very, kindly, Mr. Holcombe. It seems to me that everyone is letting their superlatives run away with them this evening, but none the less, I want you to know that I'm mighty, mighty, happy to accept this trophy this evening.

Every football player in these United States dreams about winning that trophy, and of this fine trip to New York. Every player considers that trophy the acme in recognition of this kind. And the fact that I am actually receiving this trophy tonight almost overwhelms me, and I know that all of those boys who have gone before me must have felt somewhat the same way.

From my own personal viewpoint, I consider my winning this award as indirectly, a great tribute to the new coaching staff at the University of Iowa, headed by Dr. Eddie Anderson, and to my teammates sitting back in Iowa City. A finer man and a better coach never hit these United States, and a more courageous bunch of boys, never graced the gridirons of the Midwest, than that Iowa team in 1939. I wish that they might all be with me tonight to receive this trophy. They certainly deserve it.

I want to take this grand opportunity to thank collectively, all the sportswriters and all the sportscasters, and all those who have seen fit, have seen their way clear to cast a ballot in my favor for this trophy. And I also want to take this opportunity to thank Mr. Prince and his committee, the Heisman award committee, and all those connected with the Downtown Athletic Club for this trophy, and for the fine time that they're showing me. And not only for that, but for making this fine and worthy trophy available to the football players of this country.

Finally, if you will permit me, I'd like to make a comment which in my mind, is indicative, perhaps, of the greater significance of football, and sports emphasis in general in this country, and that is, I thank God I was warring on the gridirons of the Midwest, and not on the battlefields of Europe. I can speak confidently and positively that the players of this country, would much more, much rather struggle and fight to win the Heisman award, than the Croix de Guerre.

Thank you."

Nile Kinnick
Halfback
Adel, Iowa

No single player or team captured the imagination of Hawkeye fans more than Nile Kinnick and his legendary Ironmen team of 1939. Kinnick, a stalwart on the playing field and in the classroom, was THE model Iowa football player.

As a student, Kinnick was senior class president. He was a member of Phi Beta Kappa, the national scholastic honor society.

Maintaining a 3.4 GPA while participating in two sports, Kinnick earned a degree from the College of Commerce in 1940. He enrolled in the Iowa Law College.

As a player, his achievements are unmatched in Hawkeye history. He culminated a brilliant career in 1939 by winning the Heisman, Walter Camp and Maxwell Trophies as the nation's top player.

He made virtually every All-America team and was the Big Ten MVP. Nile is a member of Iowa's all time football team and was named its Most Outstanding Player.

Kinnick was the spirit of Coach Eddie Anderson's Ironmen unit of '39. The Hawkeyes' 6 1 1 mark included a 7 6 upset of Notre Dame when Kinnick scored every point. He also punted 16 times for 731 yards, both Iowa records, versus the Fighting Irish.

Kinnick died in the Caribbean sea in a crash of his fighter plane while on a training flight June 2, 1943, as an ensign in the United States Navy.

Cal Jones
Lineman
Steubenville, Ohio

Jersey No. 62 was never worn more proudly than the three seasons Cal Jones donned it at Iowa.

One of the most intimidating linemen to wear the old gold and black, Jones was a three-time first team All-Big Ten guard. He made 22 All-America teams during his career, including a record 15 in 1954.

As team captain in 1955, Jones earned the prestigious Outland Trophy, given to the nation's top interior lineman. He was a consensus All American twice, one of only two at Iowa. Cal is an elected member of the National Football Foundation and Helms Athletic Foundation Halls of Fame.

Jones was inducted into the inaugural class of Iowa Varsity Club Hall of Fame. He was also chosen to the Iowa all time football team in 1989.

A physical education major at Iowa, Jones earned a 3.0 grade point average. He earned praise from Coach Forest Evashevski, who called him "the greatest lineman I ever coached."

The two-way guard was part of the "Steubenville Trio" (along with Frank Gilliam and Eddie Vincent) to come to Iowa from Steubenville, Ohio in the mid 1950s.

Jones died as a result of a plane crash in Canada on Dec. 9, 1956.

Throughout the years, several Iowa football players have been honored by winning national awards for their outstanding performance.

Under Kirk Ferentz, 13 Hawkeyes have combined to win 15 individual national awards, including the AP Player of the Year, Davey O'Brien, Outland (twice), John Mackey (twice), Jim Thorpe, Lou Groza, Doak Walker, Lott IMPACT, Rimington, Butkus, Ray Guy and Jet. In addition, Iowa's offensive line was recognized with the 2016 Joe Moore Award, an annual award presented to the best offensive line in college football.

Tory Taylor became the first Hawkeye to earn the Ray Guy Award, presented to the nation's top punter. He also was a consensus All-American and voted the Eddleman-Fields Big Ten Punter of the Year for a second time (2020). Along with the Butkus Award, Campbell was recognized by the National Football Foundation (NFF) with the William V. Campbell Trophy, which is considered the academic Heisman Trophy. Campbell was named a NFF National Scholar-Athlete, earning a $25,000 post-graduate scholarship as Iowa's first recipient of the Campbell Trophy.

He was also a semifinalist for the Chuck Bednarik Award. In addition, Linderbaum was one of three finalists for the Rimington Trophy. Nixon was named defensive lineman and overall defensive Player of the Year in the Big Ten, while Taylor was the Big Ten Punter of the Year.

In 2019, offensive lineman Tristan Wirfs was named the Rimington-Pace Offensive Lineman of the Year.

Tight end T.J. Hockenson earned the John Mackey Awards in 2018, named in honor of John Mackey and symbolic of the best tight end in the nation. He was also awarded the Ozzie Newsome Award, presented by the Touchdown Club of Columbus, and was named Kwalick-Clark Big Ten Tight End of the Year.

Linebacker Josey Jewell earned the Lott IMPACT Trophy in 2017, named in honor of Ronnie Lott. Desmond King earned the Jim Thorpe Award in 2015 as the best defensive back in the nation, while Josh Jackson was one of three finalists for the Thorpe Award in 2017.

Both Jewell and Jackson earned unanimous consensus All-America honors in 2017. Jewell was named Nagurski-Woodson Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year and the Butkus-Fitzgerald Linebacker of the Year, while Jackson earned the Tatum-Woodson Defensive Back of the Year award.

King earned unanimous consensus All-America honors as a junior and was named the Tatum-Woodson Big Ten Defensive Back of the Year in addition to winning the Thorpe Award. King also won the Jack Tatum Award, presented by the Touchdown Club of Columbus. King repeated as a first team All-American in 2016 and was a semifinalist for the Thorpe Award, the Bednarik Award and the Lott IMPACT Trophy.

In 2014, offensive left tackle Brandon Scherff was the recipient of the Outland Trophy, emblematic of the best offensive lineman in the nation. Scherff is the fourth Iowa football player to earn the award, and the second under coach Kirk Ferentz. The native of Denison, Iowa, also earned unanimous consensus All-America recognition and was named the Rimington-Pace Offensive Lineman of the Year in the Big Ten Conference.

Jewell was one of five finalists for the Butkus Award in 2016 as a junior, after leading the team in tackles for the second straight season. Senior center Austin Blythe was one of three finalists for the 2015 Rimington Award, presented annually to the top center in the nation.

In 2013, linebacker James Morris gathered several honors for his play on the field and his performance in the classroom. On the field, Morris was second team All-Big Ten and fourth team All-America (Phil Steele). He was a finalist for the Lott IMPACT Trophy and the Wuerffel Trophy.

In the classroom, Morris was a Capital One first-team Academic All-American. He was named a National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athlete, earning an $18,000 post-graduate scholarship. Morris also earned an NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship and earned the Big Ten Sportsmanship Award.

Following the 2010 season, several Hawkeyes were candidates for national awards. Defensive end Adrian Clayborn, who earned consensus All-America recognition, was a finalist for the Rotary Lombardi Award and the Ted Hendricks Award. Quarterback Ricky Stanzi was a finalist for the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award and the Premier Player of College Football Award, while punter Ryan Donahue was one of three finalists for the Ray Guy Award.

While posting an 11-2 overall record in 2009 and earning a victory in the FedEx Orange Bowl, the Hawkeyes gathered several postseason awards and honors. Bryan Bulaga was named the Offensive Lineman of the Year in the Big Ten and Clayborn was named national Defensive Performer of the Year by the College Football Performance Awards. Bulaga and Clayborn joined five teammates in earning first-team All-Big Ten honors.

In 2008, running back Shonn Greene earned consensus All-America honors and was named the recipient of the Doak Walker Award, which goes annually to the top running back in the nation. Greene established an Iowa single season rushing record and was the only running back in the nation to gain over 100 yards in every game. Greene was also named the Offensive Player of the Year in the Big Ten Conference. He placed sixth in the voting for the Heisman Trophy.

While Greene led the Iowa offense in 2008, tackle Mitch King was the leader of another standout Hawkeye defensive unit. King was named as the 2008 Big Ten Defensive Lineman of the Year.

Offensive tackle Robert Gallery was the recipient of the 2003 Outland Trophy. Gallery was named the Big Ten Lineman of the Year and was named a consensus All-American. He was Iowa's third Outland Trophy recipient and was the second player selected in the 2004 NFL Draft.

Kicker Nate Kaeding earned the Lou Groza Award as the top kicker in the nation in 2002. He also earned consensus All-America honors as a senior in 2003 and was one of three finalists for the Groza Award. Kaeding earned all-Pro recognition during his professional career and enjoyed a nine-year NFL career.

Also in 2002, Dallas Clark earned the John Mackey Award as the top tight end in the nation and QB Brad Banks was recognized with the Davey O'Brien Award as the top signal caller in the nation. Clark was named to the NFL's all-Pro team in 2009 as well.

Following the 2007 season, linebacker Mike Klinkenborg was named a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete, earning an $18,000 post-graduate scholarship. A two-time first team academic all-American, Klinkenborg was also a finalist for the Draddy Award.

Along with having three players earn Player of the Year awards for their positions (QB Brad Banks, TE Dallas Clark and PK Nate Kaeding) in 2002, Iowa had a total of 11 players earn first-team All-Big Ten honors. In addition to earning the Davey O'Brien Award as the top quarterback, Banks was named Associated Press National Player of the Year, placed second in the Heisman Trophy voting and was named the Most Valuable Player and Offensive Player of the Year in the Big Ten Conference. Banks was also a finalist for the Maxwell Award and the Walter Camp Football Foundation Player of the Year.

Center Bruce Nelson in 2002 was a finalist for the Rimington Award, which goes to the top center in the nation, while Clark and OL Eric Steinbach earned consensus All-America honors. The 2002 and 2003 seasons marked just the third and fourth seasons in which Iowa has had more than one consensus selection. Steinbach, in 2002, preceded Gallery as the Big Ten Lineman of the Year.

In addition to the player honors, Ferentz has earned national recognition as well. In 2015, Ferentz was named the Eddie Robinson and Woody Hayes national Coach of the Year, while also earning the Bobby Dodd Trophy. Ferentz was both the Dave McClain and Hayes-Schembechler Big Ten Coach of the Year. The conference honor is the fourth for Ferentz in his career (2002, 2004, 2009).

Ferentz was also named national Coach of The Year by the Walter Camp Football Foundation and the Associated Press in 2002. The American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) selected Ron Aiken as the 2002 national Assistant Coach of the Year. Norm Parker, Iowa's defensive coordinator, was a finalist for the Broyles Award, which recognizes the nations top Division I assistant coach, in both 2004 and 2005.

Thirty-three University of Iowa football players have earned Consensus All-America status, an honor bestowed to any player that appears on three of the five media outlets that determine All-America teams. Two players -- OL Calvin Jones (1954, 1955) and LB Larry Station (1984, 1985) -- were honored on more than one occasion.

Of the 33 players honored, 16 earned unanimous status by being recognized by each of the five media outlets used in the consensus selection process. Those players include QB Randy Duncan (1958); Station (1985); QB Chuck Long (1985); TE Dallas Clark (2002); OL Robert Gallery (2003), RB Shonn Greene (2008), OL Brandon Scherff (2014); DB Desmond King (2015); DB Josh Jackson (2017); LB Josey Jewell (2017), DL Daviyon Nixon (2020), OL Tyler Linderbaum (2021), LB Jack Campbell (2022), Cooper DeJean (2023), Tory Taylor (2023) and Jay Higgins (2024).

Alex Karras

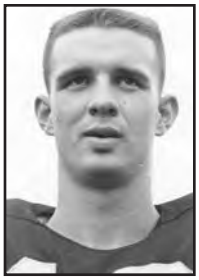
Detroit Lions, 1958-62, 1964-70.
Inducted, Centennial Class, 2020

Alex Karras (6-2, 248-pounds) was a defensive tackle from Gary, Indiana. He was drafted in the first round (10th selection overall) of the 1958 draft by the Detroit Lions. He was voted college football's outstanding lineman in 1957 and placed second in the voting for the Heisman Trophy. He was also a collegiate heavyweight wrestling champion.

A true team leader for the Lions, Karras led a Detroit defense that finished second in points allowed in the NFL three times. His career was capped with his lone playoff appearance in 1970. His durability was evidenced by his starting string of 153 consecutive games, missing just one game during his 12-year career.

A member of the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1960's, Karras was selected first-team All-Pro four times (1960-62, 1965), second-team All-Pro eight times, and voted to four Pro Bowls. Karras played in 161 games during his 12-season career (1958-1962, 1964-70). His career totals include four interceptions, 17 fumble recoveries and one safety.

Karras was born July 15, 1935, in Gary, Indiana. He passed away on Oct. 10, 2012, at the age of 77.



Paul Krause

Washington Redskins & Minnesota Vikings, 1964-79.
Inducted, 1998

Paul Krause, a 6-3, 200-pound free safety, became the leading pass interceptor of all time with 81 steals during a 16-season career with the Washington Redskins and Minnesota Vikings from 1964 to 1979.

A two-way star at Iowa, he was the second-round draft pick of the Redskins in 1964. He was traded to Minnesota after four seasons and went on to excel with the Vikings for 12 more seasons before retiring after the 1979 campaign.

Krause led the NFL in interceptions in 1964 with 12 and was named to the All-NFL first team. He was named to his first of eight Pro Bowls and was second in voting for NFL Rookie of the Year. Named All-NFL four different times, Krause was also selected All-Eastern Conference twice, and All-NFC five times.

Krause was the starting free safety in Super Bowls IV, VIII, IX, and XI, in the 1969 NFL championship game and NFC title games in 1973, 1974, 1976 and 1977. He intercepted one pass in Super Bowl IV and recovered a fumble in Super Bowl IX.

Krause recorded three interceptions in his final campaign in 1979 to surpass former Hawkeye Emlen Tunnell, who had 79 steals, for the all-time record. The durable Krause missed only two games in 16 seasons because of injuries.

Krause was born Feb. 19, 1942, in Flint, Michigan.

Fred "Duke" Slater

Milwaukee Badgers, Rock Island Independents, Chicago Cardinals, 1922-31.
Inducted, Centennial Class, 2020

Duke Slater (6-1, 215-pounds) was a three-time All-Big Ten selection who earned All-American honors. Slater helped Iowa to a perfect 7-0 record in 1921, including a 10-7 victory over Knute Rockne's Notre Dame team, ending a 20-game Irish winning streak. Slater turned pro in 1922, joining the Milwaukee Badgers. After just two games, he signed with the Rock Island Independents, where he played from 1922-25. Slater completed his career with the Chicago Cardinals (1926-31).

Slater starred as a two-way tackle for 10 seasons and was the longest tenured African American player during that era. Slater played the full 60 minutes during the historic Thanksgiving Day game in 1929 when Ernie Nevers scored a single-game record 40 points, an NFL record that still stands.

Racial bias presumedly kept Slater from being named to the official NFL All-Decade Team of the 1920's. However, he was recognized as an All-Decade player of the 1920's in the book "The Pro Football Chronicle." In total, Slater was named All-BNFL four times (1923, 1925, 1926, 1929), and second-team, All-NFL by various outlets in seven of his 10 pro seasons (1923-27, 1929-30).

Slater graduated from law school and passed the bar in 1928 while still playing in the NFL. He started a practice in Chicago and became an assistant district attorney and assistant Illinois commerce commissioner. Slater was elected Chicago's second black judge in 1948, and in 1960 became the first black judge to serve on the Superior Court of Chicago.

Slater was born Dec. 9, 1898, in Normal, Illinois, and died Aug. 14, 1966, at the age of 67.

Andre Tippett

New England Patriots, 1982-93. Inducted, 2008

Andre Tippett (6-3, 240-pounds) was selected in the second round of the 1982 NFL Draft by the New England Patriots. Following the strike shortened 1982 season, Tippett led the Patriots with 8.5 sacks in 1983. He set a team record for sacks with 18.5 the following season, earning the first of five consecutive invitations to the Pro Bowl (1985-89).

Tippett led the ACF in sacks (16.5) to rank second in the NFL in 1985, recorded three forced fumbles, and three recovered fumbles, one of which he returned 25 yards for a touchdown. In four postseason games he recorded 21 tackles and one sack. His play earned him All-Pro, Pro-Bowl and AFC Defensive Player of the Year honors.

Tippett was off to another great start in 1986 before a knee injury in the ninth game of the season required surgery. He returned to the line-up for the final two regular season games and the team's one playoff appearance. Despite missing five games, Tippett earned All-AFC and All-Pro second-team honors, while being named to a third consecutive Pro Bowl.

Tippett registered 12.5 sacks in 1987 to again lead the AFC and rank second in the NFL. He remained a dominant player for the Patriots through his final season in 1993. At the time of his retirement Tippett held Patriot team records for season sacks (18.5) career sacks (100) and career fumble recoveries (17). A five-time All-AFC selection, Tippett was named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1980's.

Tippett was born Dec. 27, 1959, in Birmingham, Alabama.

Emlen Tunnell

New York Giants and Green Bay Packers, 1948-61.
Inducted, 1967

Emlen Tunnell (6-1, 187-pounds) entered pro football as a free agent with the New York Giants in 1948, after a college career at Toledo and the University of Iowa (1946-47), and spending time in the Coast Guard. Tunnell was a standout safety and excelled on punt and kickoff returns.

Tunnell was the first African American to play for the Giants and was the first African American to be elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Tunnell began his college career at Toledo, where he suffered a broken neck which was severe enough that both the Army and Navy rejected his enlistment efforts during World War II. The Coast Guard finally accepted Tunnell for duty. Following his Coach Guard service, he returned to college football at Iowa for two seasons. Tunnell left Iowa prior to his final season and thus was not drafted in 1948.

Tunnell intercepted a then-record 79 passes in his 14 seasons with the Giants (11 seasons) and Green Bay Packers (three seasons). He totaled 1,282 yards and four touchdowns on interception returns, 2,217 yards and five touchdowns on punt returns, and 1,215 yards and one touchdown on kickoff returns. He was named All-NFL in six seasons and played in nine Pro Bowls, while being named the NFL's all-time safety in 1969.

Tunnell was born March 29, 1925, in Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania. He passed away July 22, 1975, at the age of 50.

NATIONAL FOOTBALL FOUNDATION COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Iowa football is well represented in college football Halls of Fame, including the National Football Foundation, the Helms Athletic Foundation and the College Football Hall of Fame.

Seven men have been named to the Halls of both foundations: Howard Jones, coach; Nile Kinnick, player; Gordon Locke, player; Fred (Duke) Slater, player; Dr. Edward Anderson, coach; Edward (Slip) Madigan, coach; Calvin Jones, player.

Four men have been named to the Hall of the Helms Foundation: Calvin Jones, player; Ossie Solem, coach; Emlen Tunnell, professional player; Eric Wilson, publicist.

Aubrey Devine, Randy Duncan, Robert Gallery, Alex Karras, Chuck Long, Larry Station and Andre Tippett have been named to the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame as players.

Gallery, a unanimous consensus All-America selection in 2003, is the latest to join the Hall of Fame as a member of the class of 2023. He was the Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year as a senior and the recipient of the 2003 Outland Trophy. He was the second players selected in the NFL Draft and played in the NFL for eight seasons.

Earl Banks was inducted on the merits of his long-time coaching tenure at Morgan State and Bob Stoops for his career as the head coach at Oklahoma.

Former Iowa Coach Forest Evashevski was honored into the Hall of Fame in December of 2000 in New York City. Hayden Fry (2003) is the latest Iowa coach to be inducted. Evashevski coached Iowa from 1952-60, compiling a 42-27-4 record. The Hawkeyes finished in the top five nationally in 1956, 1957, 1958 and 1960 under Evashevski, who later served as Iowa's Director of Athletics.

Fry was inducted as a member of the 2003 Hall of Fame class at the 46th annual awards dinner on Dec. 9, 2003, at the Waldorf Astoria in New York City. Fry was officially enshrined at the Hall in South Bend, Indiana, in August 2004. The College Football Hall of Fame is now located in Atlanta, Georgia. Fry was Iowa's winningest head coach at the time of his retirement (143 wins). He led the Hawkeyes to three Big Ten titles and Rose Bowl appearances and coached the Hawkeyes in 14 bowl games.

School Colors

For 40 years Iowa was without school colors, but in 1887 a group of 50 seniors met on the steps of the Old Capitol to decide, what are now, the official school colors. They chose Old Gold, the color of Iowa's vast corn fields and Black, the color of the rich soil.

School Fight Song

The Iowa Fight Song was written in 1950 by Mason City, Iowa, native Meredith Willson. Best known as the creator of Broadway's "The Music Man," Willson was awarded a 1963 University of Iowa Alumni Association Distinguished Service Award for "setting the spirit of Iowa to music." The lively cheer is sung hundreds of times during Iowa athletic events during the year.

The Tigerhawk Emblem

When Hayden Fry was named University of Iowa Head Football Coach in 1979, he wanted to change the Hawkeyes' image from a team that posted 17-straight losing seasons to that of a winner. One part of that makeover was creating and introducing a new logo. Fry and the athletics marketing department held a campus-wide contest asking fans to submit their logo ideas. The winner - the Tigerhawk designed by Cedar Rapids native Bill Colbert - has become synonymous with University of Iowa Athletics.

The Swarm

Coach Fry wanted to create a sense of unity and togetherness on game days amongst his new team in 1979. Before each game, he instructed his team to take and leave the field as a tight group with everyone holding hands and moving at a slow trot. Fry coined the entrance "The Swarm".

"I wasn't sure what we'd look like as a team after the first snap," explained Fry, "so I wanted to make sure that we looked like winners coming on and off the field. I told my first team that the Swarm was to get the attention of the other team," he laughed. "But it was just as much for us to relax and not be scared."

The Wave

The University of Iowa football program was chosen to receive the prestigious 2017 Disney Sports Spirit Award after launching a heart-warming tradition at its home games that touched the lives of scores of young patients at the university's Stead Family Children's Hospital.

In a tradition that started at the 2017 season opener, fans inside Kinnick Stadium and patients and families inside the UI Stead Family Children's Hospital exchanged waves at the end of the first quarter of each home game.

The UI Stead Family Children's Hospital opened in 2017. It is connected to the south end of the University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics and overlooks Kinnick Stadium from the southeast grandstands. During Iowa football home games, patients and their families can watch the game from the top floor (Level 12), one of the highest vantage points in Iowa City.

University of Iowa Fight Songs

ON IOWA

On, Iowa, proudly at the fore,
On, Iowa, on forever more,
Ev'ry loyal son will give a rousing toast to you,
Ev'ry loyal daughter loves you true,
On, Iowa, with your wealth untold,
A heritage to us you did unfold,
Love of family, love of friend,
Love of country, too, makes us proud for what you stand,
Our dear Old Gold.

IOWA FIGHT SONG

(Meredith Willson)
The word is "Fight! Fight! Fight! for IOWA,"
Let every loyal Iowan sing;
The word is "Fight! Fight! Fight! for IOWA,"
Until the walls and rafters ring
(Rah! Rah!)
Come on and cheer, cheer, cheer, for IOWA
Come on and cheer until you hear the final gun.
The word is "Fight! Fight! Fight! for IOWA,"
Until the game is won.

ROLL ALONG IOWA

Roll along, Iowa, Roll down the field,
On to victory!
Roll along, Iowa, Don't ever yield,
Always a winner be!
Get that ball, Give your all,
For dear Old Gold,
Raise her banner high!
With firm endeavor,
Roll on forever, U. of I.

ALMA MATER IOWA

Come all alums of Iowa,
and blend your voices true;
Sing praises to our Alma Mater,
as good Hawkeyes do.
Let's keep within our hearts a fire
to magnify her fame;
Bring credit to these noble halls
where glory and honor reign.
The day is near when comrades here will bid farewell and part;
But each Hawkeye carries on,
thy spirit in his heart.
Oh! Iowa, Iowa, we drink a toast to you;
We pledge our everlasting love
for dear old Iowa U.
Alma Mater, Iowa.

Floyd of Rosedale

Iowa vs. Minnesota

To the winner of the Iowa-Minnesota football game goes possession of a statue of a pig named "Floyd of Rosedale."

A bet in 1935 between Minnesota Governor Floyd B. Olson and Iowa Governor Clyde Herring gave birth to Floyd of Rosedale. Tensions between the two state universities had been running high and a wager was made in an effort to relieve the situation.

After Iowa lost the 1935 game, Herring presented Olson with Floyd of Rosedale, a full-blooded champion pig and a brother of BlueBoy from Will Rogers' movie State Fair. Olson gave the pig to the University of Minnesota and commissioned St. Paul sculptor Charles Brioscho to capture Floyd's image.

The result is a bronze pig 21 inches long and 15 inches high and weighs in at 98.3 pounds. Floyd currently resides in Iowa City as a result of Iowa's 31-14 victory last season in Minneapolis. Minnesota holds a 44-41-2 advantage in the series with Floyd of Rosedale on the line. The winning university is entitled to keep the trophy until it loses the annual battle.

Cy-Hawk Trophy

Iowa vs. Iowa State

When The University of Iowa resumed its football series with Iowa State in 1977, the Des Moines Athletic Club donated a trophy to be awarded to the winner of the annual in-state battle.

The original Cy-Hawk Trophy featured a football player in the classic running back pose and a likeness of both Herky the Hawkeye and Cy the Cardinal. A new Cy-Hawk Trophy, selected through a fan vote, was introduced for the 2012 contest, which is a part of the Iowa Corn Cy-Hawk Series.

The Hawkeyes hold a 47-24 advantage in the series that began in 1894, including a 31-16 margin since 1977 when the Cy-Hawk Trophy was first awarded. Iowa State holds possession of the trophy with a narrow 20-19 victory last season in Iowa City. The winning university is entitled to keep the trophy until it loses the annual battle.

Heartland Trophy

Iowa vs. Wisconsin

The Heartland Trophy was inaugurated in 2004 and goes each year to the winner of the football battle between Iowa and Wisconsin.

The trophy was designed and crafted by artist and former Iowa football player Frank Strub. The trophy, which is a bull mounted on a walnut base (native to both Wisconsin and Iowa), has been inscribed with the scores of all games in the long-time series. The teams have met 98 times, with Wisconsin holding a 49-47-2.

Wisconsin leads the series, 10-9, since the inception of the Heartland Trophy in 2004. The trophy resides in Iowa City following Iowa's dominant 42-10 win in Iowa City last season. The winning university is entitled to keep the trophy until it loses the annual battle.

The Heroes Game

Iowa vs. Nebraska

The Heroes Game was created to highlight the border rivalry between Iowa and Nebraska. The institutions annually honor one citizen from each of their respective states who are admired for their brave deeds and noble qualities.

These heroes are nominated by friends, neighbors or co-workers and are guests of the two teams at the game, where they will be honored on-field. Each will also have their name and hometown etched on the Heroes Trophy.

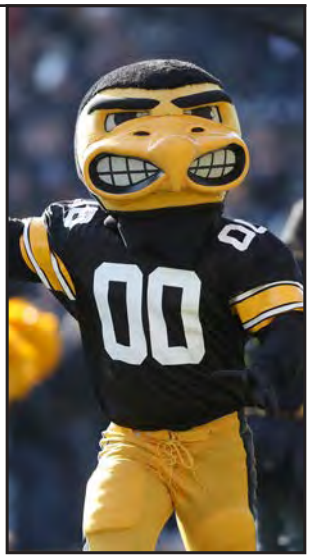
Nebraska holds a 30-22-3 advantage in the all-time series. The trophy resides in Iowa City after Iowa's 13-10 victory in Iowa City last season.

The Hawkeye Nickname

The University of Iowa borrowed its athletic nickname from the state of Iowa many years ago. The name Hawkeye from the hero in the fictional novel, The Last of the Mohicans, written by James Fenimore Cooper. Cooper had the Delaware Indians bestow the name on a white scout who lived with them. In 1838, 12 years after the book was published, people in the territory of Iowa acquired the nickname, chiefly through the efforts of Judge David Rorer of Burlington and James Edwards of Fort Madison. Edwards, editor of the Fort Madison Patriot, moved his paper to Burlington in 1843 and renamed it the Burlington Hawkeye. The two men continued their campaign to popularize the name, and territorial officials eventually gave it their formal approval.

Herky The Hawkeye

The Hawkeye nickname gained a tangible symbol in 1948 when a cartoon character, later to be named Herky the Hawkeye was hatched. The creator was Richard Spencer III, instructor of journalism at Iowa. The impish Hawk was an immediate hit and acquired a name through a statewide contest staged by the athletic department. John Franklin, a Belle Plaine alumnus, was the man who suggested Herky. Since his birth, Herky has symbolized Iowa athletics and epitomized University life. He even donned a military uniform during the Korean War and became the insignia of the 124th Fighter Squadron. During the mid-1950s, Herky came to life at a football game as the Iowa mascot. Since that time, Herky has been a familiar figure at Iowa athletics events.



Iowa football has been a popular choice for football fans, as Iowa's attendance figures would indicate. But the Hawkeyes have also been a favorite for television viewers as well. Every Iowa game over the past 23 seasons has been televised. The Hawkeyes have a 287-176-5 overall television record, and during one stretch (1955 to 1959) went 10 games without a defeat.

Kinnick Stadium, home of the Iowa football team, served its 95th season of hosting Hawkeye football games in 2024. Currently the 24th largest college owned stadium in the nation (69,250), Kinnick Stadium ranks as one of college football's finest facilities and is routinely filled on Saturdays each fall.

Originally named Iowa Stadium, the name was changed to Kinnick Stadium in 1972, in honor of Iowa's 1939 Heisman Trophy winner, Nile Kinnick. His No. 24 jersey was retired by the school due to his success as a scholar-athlete at the University.

Prior to the 2021 season, Iowa Athletics announced the naming of Duke Slater Field at Kinnick Stadium, naming the playing field for the first time in the stadium's history. Slater was the first African-American student-athlete in school history to earn All-America honors. A three-time first-team All-Big Ten selection, Slater competed in football and track and field for the Hawkeyes. Iowa had a 7-0 Big Ten record in 1921 to claim the conference title and was named by more than one media outlet as national champion.

Slater was the first Black player inducted into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1951 as a member of the inaugural class. He is also a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, being elected as a member of the Centennial Class in 2020. Slater was elected to the National Iowa Varsity Club Hall of Fame in the 1989 inaugural class and in 1951 was one of five members named to the inaugural class of the Iowa Sports Hall of Fame. As part of the 100-year celebration of Iowa football in 1989, he was named a member of Iowa's all-time football team.

Kinnick Stadium has undergone several renovations throughout the years. The $89 million Kinnick Edge project, which was completed prior to the 2019 season, provided enhancements to the north end zone of Kinnick Stadium. The latest upgrade included over 1,600 indoor and outdoor club seats as part of an entirely new north end zone.

The Kinnick Edge project included new restrooms, concourse areas, upgraded concession locations and food options, and new videoboards in the north end zone. A new playing surface was also installed prior to the 2019 season.

A two-year, $90 million restoration and renovation project for the stadium was completed prior to the start of the 2006 season. The project, which was the largest such undertaking ever for Iowa athletics, included an entirely new south end zone and a new press and hospitality facility. The south end zone project, which included new locker rooms, training room and media facilities for the Hawkeye football team on game days, was completed prior to the 2005 season.

The Paul J. Brechler Press Box, a new four-level press and hospitality facility, opened prior to the 2006 season. The facility extends the full length of the west side of the stadium. It includes 47 private viewing suites and over 1,000 club seats.

The south end zone renovation also provided a new entry plaza (Krause Family Plaza) to the south entrance, wider seats throughout most of the stadium, new and upgraded restroom facilities and concession areas, and an upgraded sound system.

Iowa draws sellout crowds for a majority of all home games, including 91 of the last 134 games over the last 20 seasons (not including 2020 due to the pandemic). Iowa had a sellout streak of 36 straight games snapped in its 2008 home finale and sold out all seven home games in 2022 and 2023.

Iowa ranked 18th in home attendance in 2024 with its average of 69,250, and annually ranks among the top 25 programs in the nation in home attendance. Big Ten Conference football games in 2024 drew over 8.4 million fans, surpassing six million fans for the 11th straight year and 12th time in 13 years. The Big Ten annually ranks first or second nationally in home attendance. General public were not allowed to attend Big Ten games in 2020.

Construction on the original 53,000-seat stadium was completed Oct. 5, 1929, at a cost of $497,151.42. Original construction took six months, but the stadium has undergone several facelifts since. Seats were added to the south end zone in 1956, raising the capacity to 60,000. The north end zone was enclosed and capacity increased to 66,000 prior to the 1983 season. With three expansion projects completed since that time, the seating capacity at Kinnick Stadium reached 70,585. Kinnick Stadium has 20 miles of bleacher seats and is 79 rows high on each side. The seating upgrades that were part of the Kinnick Edge project reduced the current capacity to 69,250.

Beside the expansions, an artificial surface was first installed in 1972. That carpet was replaced in 1981. Prior to the 1989 season a natural grass playing field, Prescription Athletic Turf, was installed. The playing surface was replaced with new sod prior to 1997 and 2005.

The playing surface was replaced prior to the 2009 season, this time with state-of-the-art Field Turf, and replaced again prior to the 2017 and 2019 seasons. Permanent practice lights were installed prior to the 2012 season and upgraded to provide broadcast-quality lighting prior to the 2015 season.

The playing surface in Kinnick Stadium in 2017 featured an Iowa logo for the first time since the conclusion of the 1980 football season, as the Tigerhawk was installed at midfield. The stadium playing surface was without a University logo since a block "I" adorned the center of the field from 1972 through 1980. Artificial turf was first installed prior to the 1972 season and the block "I" appeared at midfield until a new surface was installed prior to the 1981 season, without a logo at midfield.

The original five floor press box was constructed in 1958 at a cost of $490,628.62 and was located between the 25-yard lines on the west side of the stadium. Between 1995 and 1999, the Kinnick Stadium press box underwent a $3 million improvement and renovation project, which included the addition of 18 private viewing suites and the remodeling of all five levels. The original press box was demolished in December 2005.

Spectators attending home games enjoy all the benefits of watching a game on television, thanks to the installation of all new and expanded video boards and scoreboards prior to the 2013 season. The $9 million upgrade included large scale, HD video display units, which offer spectators live game action, instant replays and other features. In addition to the expanded main board in the south end zone, two additional video boards and a video ribbon were added to the south end zone. Upgraded scoreboards were put in place prior to the 2019 season, with a large jumbotron on the north end matching the south end.

Kinnick Stadium has a rich history, beginning with a 46-0 Hawkeye win over Monmouth in the facility's first game. The Hawkeyes tied Illinois 7-7 in the dedication game, Oct. 19, 1929.

Iowa's all-time record in Kinnick Stadium is 314-193-15. Iowa's longest home winning streak of 22 games spanned the 2002 to 2005 seasons. The Hawkeyes have had 12 undefeated home seasons, including 2003, 2004 and 2015. Iowa posted a 6-1 home record in 2002, 2008, 2009, 2011, 2019, 2021, 2023 and 2024, and a 3-1 mark in the shortened 2020 season.

The school's all-time home total attendance record was set in 2006 (494,095 fans) and matched in both 2010 and 2011. The average per game record (70,585) was established in 2005 and matched in 2006, 2007, 2010 and 2011. Iowa's record season attendance mark for all games is 905,840 set in 1990, a 75,487 per game average.

KINNICK STADIUM WALL OF HONOR

The University of Iowa Department of Athletics established the "Kinnick Stadium Wall of Honor" prior to the 2013 season.

Eleven Hawkeyes have their name and jersey number displayed on the lowest ribbon adjacent the letters of the Paul W. Brechler Press Box. The numbers coincide with the jersey number each player wore their senior season. The inaugural members of the Kinnick Stadium Wall of Honor included Aubrey Devine (1), Randy Duncan (25), Calvin Jones (62), Alex Karras (77), Nile Kinnick (24), Gordon Locke (1), Chuck Long (16), Duke Slater (15), and Larry Station (36). Andre Tippett (99) was added after being elected to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 2021. The latest addition to the Wall of Honor is Robert Gallery (78), a Hawkeye letterman from 2000-03 who was elected to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 2023.

To be considered for inclusion on the Kinnick Stadium Wall of Honor, former UI football players must be a member of the UI Varsity Club Hall of Fame, and meet one of the following three criteria: (1) Member of both the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame and the Helms Athletic Foundation Hall of Fame*; (2) Member of one of the two above mentioned nationally recognized Halls of Fame, and a consensus All-American; (3) Two-time Consensus All-American.

The Helms Athletic Foundation is no longer active, rendering it invalid for future consideration.*

#1 – Aubrey Devine (1919-21)

Devine won the Big Ten Conference Medal for Excellence in athletics and academics, and was quarterback and captain of Iowa's 1921 Big Ten championship team. He led the Hawkeyes in rushing, passing, and scoring in 1919 and 1920. He drop-kicked a field goal to beat Notre Dame, 10-7, in 1921, as Iowa earned a share of its first mythical national championship. He was a three-time first-team All-Big Ten honoree and is a member of Iowa's all-time football team.

#25 – Randy Duncan (1956-58)

Duncan won Big Ten and Iowa MVP honors when he led the Hawkeyes to a Rose Bowl title in 1959. He finished second in the 1958 Heisman Trophy balloting. Duncan was a two-time all-conference pick, earned Walter Camp and Player of the Year honors from three organizations, and was the No. 1 pick in the 1958 NFL draft. Iowa shared the mythical national title in both 1956 and 1958, while also earning the Grantland Rice Award in 1958, symbolic of the national football championship.

#62 – Calvin Jones (1953-55)

Jones was named to 22 All-America teams in his career and in 1955 was named winner of the Outland Trophy, awarded to the nation's top interior lineman. He was Iowa's first two-time consensus All-American, and his No. 62 jersey is one of only two numbers retired by the Hawkeyes. Jones was a three-time first team All-Big Ten performer and is a member of Iowa's all-time team.

#77 – Alex Karras (1956-57)

Karras was a Rose Bowl champion and a consensus All-American in 1957. He was the first two-time AP All-American in Iowa history and a winner of the Outland Trophy, awarded to the nation's top interior lineman. Karras was Heisman Trophy runner-up in 1957, and a member of the inaugural class of the Iowa Lettermen's Club Hall of Fame. He is on Iowa's all-time football team and a former NFL All-Pro performer with the Detroit Lions. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2020.

#24 – Nile Kinnick (1937-39)

Kinnick won the only Heisman Trophy in school history when he swept the Heisman, Maxwell and Walter Camp awards in 1939. He was the Big Ten MVP for Iowa's legendary 1939 Ironmen team. He was a Phi Beta Kappa scholar and senior class president, his No. 24 jersey is one of two retired numbers at Iowa, and in 1972 Iowa's stadium was named in his honor.

#2 – Gordon Locke (1920-22)

Locke primarily played fullback during his Hawkeye career, but in 1922 he was a Walter Camp first-team All-America quarterback, and he's listed as a defensive back on Iowa's all-time football team. He scored 72 points as a senior to set a then-Big Ten record, and he was awarded the Big Ten Medal of Honor (1923).

#16 – Chuck Long (1982-85)

Long quarterbacked the Hawkeyes to the 1986 Rose Bowl, the same year he became the first player in NCAA history to pass for more than 10,000 career yards. He finished runner-up in the closest Heisman Trophy contest in the award's history in 1985, and previously held the NCAA record for consecutive completions with 22 at Indiana (1984). Long was named a first-team All-Big Ten performer three times, including 1985 when he was named conference MVP. He threw a bowl-record six touchdown passes against Texas in the 1984 Freedom Bowl, and was a first round NFL Draft choice of the Detroit Lions.

#15 – Duke Slater (1918-21)

Fred "Duke" Slater was a seven-time letterman at the University of Iowa, competing in football and track from 1918-21. He was an All-Big Ten tackle for the Hawkeyes from 1919-21, and an All-America track and field athlete from 1920-21. He is a member of Iowa's all-time team. In 1928, Slater earned his law degree from the University of Iowa, and in 1951 he became the first black player inducted into the inaugural College Football Hall of Fame. He is also a member of the Helms Athletic Foundation Football Hall of Fame and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2020.

#36 – Larry Station (1982-85)

Station was named a consensus All-American in 1984 and 1985, becoming just the second Hawkeye in program history to earn multiple honors. He is the only player in school history to lead the team in tackles four times, and in 1985 finished his career with the all-time tackles record (492). Station started the final 42 games of his career, earned All-America mention in each of his four seasons, and is a linebacker on Iowa's all-time football team. He was a finalist for the Lombardi and Butkus awards in 1985, and was a three-time first team All-Big Ten honoree.

#99 – Andre Tippett (1979-81)

Tippett was the first consensus All-American for Coach Hayden Fry as a defensive end. He was a two time first team All-Big Ten selection, serving as a team captain in 1981 on Iowa's 1981 Rose Bowl team. Tippett holds Iowa's record for tackles for lost yardage in a season (20 tackles for 153 yards in 1980), leading the Big Ten in tackles for loss (20) as a junior. Tippett enjoyed a lengthy NFL career in New England, where he was a five-time All-Pro selection during his 11-year career. Tippett was named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2008 and named to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 2021.

#78 – Robert Gallery (2000-03)

Robert Gallery was elected to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame as a member of the 2023 class. Gallery earned unanimous consensus All-America honors as a senior, earning the Outland Trophy as the top offensive lineman in the nation. He was the Big Ten Conference Offensive Lineman of the Year as a senior and was first-team All-Big Ten in each of his final three seasons. Gallery played a key role as Iowa posted a perfect 8-0 Big Ten record in 2002, sharing the Big Ten title. Gallery was the second player selected in the 2004 NFL Draft (Oakland) and played eight seasons in the NFL.

NOTE: Players listed in boldface are current players.

The Iowa Hawkeyes play their home football games in Kinnick Stadium (capacity 69,250), located on the west campus in the heart of the University's athletic complex. It is a few minutes drive from Interstate 80 and 380 and is less than 30 minutes from the Eastern Iowa Airport in Cedar Rapids.

The Paul J. Brechler Press Box is on the west side and accessible by elevator or stairs. The facility is named in honor of the former UI athletic director (1947-60). It was completed prior to the 2006 season as part of the two-year, $90 million renovation of Kinnick Stadium.

The four-level facility extends from goal line to goal line. The media section, including the press section, radio and television booths and game management operations, are located on the fourth level. Level one includes private suites and indoor club seating, level two includes outdoor club seating and level three is private suites.

Refreshments and snacks are available throughout each game. A pregame meal is served for the media, as well as sandwiches postgame.

Ferentz Conferences/Interview Requests

Coach Kirk Ferentz holds a media conference each Tuesday during the season in the All-America Room of the Stew and LeNore Hansen Football Performance Center. Players are also available, upon request, each Tuesday.

Player requests must be made following each game, either after a Saturday game or by 9 a.m. (CT) Sunday morning, for the following week. Out of town media should contact the UI Strategic Communications office on Mondays to arrange telephone interviews.

Credentials

Season and single-game credential requests for Iowa football may be submitted at hawkeyesports.com/media. If you have questions regarding credentials, the Strategic Communications number is 319-335-9424. Season requests must be received by Aug. 12, to assure a season seat in the press box.

Once a credential request is submitted, you will receive an email reply that your request has been received and either approved or denied. Credentials may be picked up in the Strategic Communications office before Noon on the Friday prior to game day or left at the Media Will Call Window inside Gate I at Kinnick Stadium on game day. Parking credentials are digital.

Media members may not use a credential to cover the game for another newspaper, television station, radio station or internet site. Failure to comply will result in both agencies credentials being revoked for the entire season.

Credential language, which appears on all credentials issued for Iowa football, is printed on the following page of this guide. All rules and regulations listed are enforced by the University of Iowa Athletics Department and the Big Ten Conference.

Parking

Requests for parking should be made when requesting credentials. Media parking is located in the newly constructed Hawkeye Ramp at the northwest corner of Kinnick Stadium.

To access the Hawkeye Ramp, you must approach from the north on Hawkins Drive. Turn right on Hawkeye Ramp Drive and the ramp is located on the left side of the street.

Television stations needing satellite truck parking must contact Traci Wagner (319-335-9424) early in the week prior to that Saturday's game to make arrangements. Truck parking is located outside the southeast corner of Kinnick Stadium (near Gate M) adjacent to Hawkins Drive.

Media Entrances

All media must enter Kinnick Stadium through Gate B on the west side of the stadium. Credentials will be required to enter the stadium through Gate B. All bags will be inspected and tagged upon entry. Media with seats in the press box will access the media area using the elevator inside Gate F from the concourse. Media with photo/video credentials can access the photo room located in the northeast corner of the field by either the west tunnel (access near section 128 on concourse) or the northeast staircase from the concourse to the field.

Photo vests must be checked out from the photo room and worn to allow access to the playing field. Vests must be returned to the photo room 10-15 minutes following the conclusion of each game.

For television crews, one credential issued to each outlet will have access to the fourth level of the press box, although television stations are not allowed to video tape from the press box. TV camera personnel on the sidelines must adhere to all sideline policies. While each television crew is provided one credential granting access to the fourth level of the press box, a press box seat is not assigned.

Services

Complete play-by-play, halftime statistics, final team and individual stats, complete defensive stats, drive charts, participation charts and quotes from both head coaches will be emailed following each home game. Stat Broadcast is available for each home game via statbroadcast.com.

The Kinnick Stadium press facility closes four hours following the conclusion of postgame news conferences.

Telephones

Media requiring their own phone lines should call 319-335-2945 and ask for a work order clerk.

High Speed Internet Access

Wireless internet access is available (password required), both in the press box and in the postgame interview rooms. Hard wire high speed internet access is available upon request. Please ask for IT assistance in the press box should you need internet access on game day.

Postgame Information via E-Mail

All game statistics, notes, and quotes are e-mailed from Kinnick Stadium following Iowa home games to all credentialed media. This information is filed in PDF format and is sent within 30-45 minutes following home games. This information is also posted on the Iowa website, hawkeyesports.com, following each home game.

News Conference Transcripts

Transcripts of Tuesday news conferences and home game postgame news conferences with Coach Kirk Ferentz, are provided by ASAP Transcripts. Ferentz news conference transcripts are available for download via hawkeyesports.com and e-mail.

Accommodations

A directory of hotels, motels, and available air transportation can be found on page 313 of this guide.

Postgame Interviews

Members of the media should contact Matt Weitzel with player requests prior to leaving the press box. UI Strategic Communications staff will be departing the press box with approximately five minutes remaining in the game.

Both team locker room facilities are located beneath the south end zone stands. All player and coaches interviews will take place in the designated media rooms. You may follow a member of the UI Strategic Communications staff from the press box or ask for directions on getting to the postgame media rooms.

Both head coaches are available (in different interview rooms) following the cooling off period, with player interviews to follow. Coach Ferentz' postgame comments are televised on the monitors in the media section of the Brechler press box and the photo room. Quotes from both head coaches are distributed following the interview sessions.

The Iowa locker room is closed to the media. Selected Iowa players will speak first at the podium prior to Coach Ferentz.

Field Access

Credentialed members of the media are allowed field access up to 60 minutes prior to kickoff. Members of the media are not allowed field access during the game until five minutes or less remain in the contest. Members of the media will be held at the northwest corner of the playing field, north of the team bench areas, until two minutes left in the game, and will then be allowed to proceed immediately to the south end zone for postgame interviews.

Recruit Interviews

The University of Iowa is committed to full compliance with NCAA Division I rules, and per NCAA Rule 13.10.1, members of the media are not allowed to have any type of in-person, face-to-face contact with a prospective student-athlete and/or interview a prospective student-athlete (either by telephone or any other communication medium) while that prospective student-athlete is vising the University of Iowa in conjunction with our athletics programs (i.e., official or unofficial visits).

Any violation of this rule falls solely on the University of Iowa. Therefore, if a member of the media is unable to adhere to this rule and becomes a liability, the University of Iowa will retain the right to revoke media credentials.

The Hawkeye Radio Network

Fans of the University of Iowa following the Hawkeyes on radio can tune in on their favorite station throughout the state of Iowa and the Midwest.

The radio voice of the Hawkeyes is Gary Dolphin, a Cascade, Iowa, native who handles all play-by-play action of both Iowa football and men's basketball. In addition, Dolphin also serves as the host of the weekly coach's shows during the season with football Coach Kirk Ferentz and men's basketball Coach Ben McCollum. He also hosts the Fight For Iowa Podcast, available on all podcast platforms each week. Dolphin is a three-time Iowa Sportscaster of the Year. He is in his 29th year of broadcasting Iowa football and basketball on the Hawkeye Radio Network. Dolphin, overall, is in his 53rd year of play-by-play broadcasting, which includes seven years of broadcasting basketball games for Northwestern University. He served as the Network Television Coordinator for the Chicago Bears from 1989-99.

Dolphin is joined on all University of Iowa football broadcasts by former Hawkeye great Pat Angerer. The Bettendorf, Iowa, native played for the Hawkeyes from 2005-09, where he compiled 258 tackles, including 11.5 tackles for loss, two sacks, and six interceptions. Angerer was a member of four bowl teams – 2005 Outback, 2006 Alamo, 2008 Outback, 2009 Orange – during his Iowa career. A first-team All-Big Ten selection, Angerer led the conference in tackles, averaging 12.8 stops per contest in league games (and he was second in all games at 11.2 tackles per game). Following his Hawkeye career, Angerer was selected with the 63rd pick in the 2010 NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts. He played four seasons in Indianapolis, where he accumulated 328 career tackles, 2.5 sacks, 14 tackles for loss, four forced fumbles and two interceptions. Angerer, who was named to PFWA and The Sporting News All-Rookie teams in 2010, was a member of two playoff teams (2010, 2012) during his NFL career.

Iowa's sideline reporter is Rob Brooks, son of Hall of Fame broadcaster, Bob Brooks. Rob also handles play by play duties of Iowa Women's basketball.

The Hawkeye Radio Network, a production of Learfield, blankets the state of Iowa and bordering states with more than 50 stations providing live coverage. The Hawkeyes can also be heard on the Varsity Network App, the official YouTube channel of the Hawkeyes, hawkeyesports.com, and on SiriusXM satellite radio.
